

Words

Interviews, debates, readings, recitals, spoken word, and poetry.

A. K. Blakemore was twice named a Foyle Young Poet of the Year. Her work has appeared in journals including Poetry London, Poetry Review and Ambit. Her 2015 debut, Humbert Summer was awarded the Melita Hume Prize, and her second, Fondue, is published by Offord Road Books.

Sun 12:00 CBTR

Adam Lusby lectures in Entrepreneurship at the University of Exeter. An architect by training, he is interested in the 'thinking' that exists on the 'edge' which has led him to work across disciplines and sectors with a curiosity around technology. He currently advises on the circular economy and curates and develops educational content.

Fri 12:30 Round Room - The Regeneration

Amanda Feilding has been called the 'hidden hand' behind the renaissance of psychedelic research. By establishing key research collaborations with some of the world's most prestigious universities, she has propelled the field of drug policy forward over the last 20 years, conducting several landmark studies, such as the world's first LSD brain imaging study.

Sat 11:00 Round Room

Amy Lilwall is a teacher and novelist who joined Falmouth University in September 2017 where she is a Senior Lecturer in Creative Writing. Her unnerving and funny dystopian debut novel The Biggerers, was published in 2018.

Sat 11:00 Walled Garden

Andy Bennett is a romantic poet, in that he drinks too much, has a chronic disease, and often wanders around in public counting on his fingers. He's performed two full-length shows at the Edinburgh Fringe, and is the founder of the poetry blog 28 Sonnets Later.

Fri 15:20, Sun 15:10 Round Room

Andy Miller is a reader, author and editor and the co-host of the popular literary podcast Backlisted sponsored by Unbound and co-hosted by John Mitchinson. Andy's most recent book is the widely-acclaimed The Year of Reading Dangerously (4th Estate). He'll be talking about Russell Hoban and the Beatles, among other things...

Fri, Sat 12:30 Bowling Green

Anthony Anaxagorou is a British Cypriot award-winning poet, fiction writer, essayist and publisher. He has written several volumes of poetry, a spoken-word EP and a collection of short stories. His new collection of poetry After the Formalities is published by Pinned in the Margins in September.

Sun 16:20 Round Room

Antosh Wojcik uses just his voice and an electronic drum kit to explore the effects of dementia on speech, memory and family in his debut stage work, How to Keep Time. This is a mesmeric display of drumming and spoken word in which poems become beats and beats become glitches in time.

Sat 14:40 Round Room

Backlisted is a podcast that gives new life to old books. Co-hosted by John Mitchinson from Unbound, and author Andy Miller, it is one of the most popular literary podcasts around. They will be recording two podcasts over the weekend, looking at Russell Hoban's classic Riddley Walker and some of the finest writing on the Beatles.

Fri, Sat 12:30 Bowling Green

Ben Moor has been writing and performing solo theatre pieces for over 20 years, three of which were published as short stories in More Trees to Climb (Portobello Books, 2009). His acting credits include The IT Crowd and Dr Thorne for television, and the films Miss You Already and A Monster Calls.

Sat 10:30 Idler Academy

Ben Norris is a poet playwright and actor from Nottingham. Two-time national poetry slam champion, Ben has appeared everywhere from festival stages to the Royal Albert Hall via many dimly-lit pub basements. His second poetry pamphlet was published in May 2019 from Verve Poetry Press.

Fri 16:00, Sat 16:00 Round Room

Ben Okri was born in Minna, Nigeria. His childhood was divided between Nigeria, where he saw first hand the consequences of war, and London. He has won many prizes for his fiction, including the Booker Prize in 1991 for his novel The Famished Road. An acclaimed essayist, playwright, and poet, his latest novel is The Freedom Artist.

Sat 16:00 Bowling Green

Ben Smith lives in Cornwall and is a lecturer in creative writing at Plymouth University, specialising in environmental literature. Doggerland, his first novel is set in the near future and tells the story of a young man repairing turbines on a vast wind farm in the sea.

Sun 14:00 Walled Garden

Betty Davis takes random scenes from life and pours them out as words, poetry and art. She'll be sharing these creations at different locations around the estate thanks to the support of LRS Arts and their mentoring programme.

Walkabout

Bruce Parry has lived with tribal people around the globe, many of whom exist in societies without leaders or even competition. He'll be talking about how they are able to maintain a balance, and asks how we might learn from their experiences to reset our relationships to each other and to nature.

Fri 19:00 Park Stage

Sun 11:00 Round Room - The Regeneration

Cathy Rentzenbrink is the author of The Last Act of Love and A Manual for Heartache and is currently working on a novel and a book about books. She will be interviewing across the weekend.

Fri 11:00, Sat 16:15 Walled Garden

Sun 15:00 Bowling Green

Charlie Higson is an author, actor, producer, comedian and writer. With Paul Whitehouse he co-created and starred in the BAFTA winning sketch show The Fast Show. His Young Bond series of books has sold over a million copies in the UK. He will be talking to Miranda Sawyer about his life and work. On Sunday he's talking about writing for young readers and awarding our young writers prize.

Sat 15:30 Park Stage

Sun 12:00 Bowling Green

Chris Watson was a founding member of the seminal avant garde band Cabaret Voltaire. He has since developed a passionate interest in recording wildlife sounds from around the world, winning a BAFTA for his work on David Attenborough's Life series. Chris will track the development of the dawn chorus and the songs and signals of Port Eliot.

Sat 17:15 CBTR

Colin Tudge Is a writer and biologist exploring the potential for regenerative farming to feed the world. He'll be talking to Rory Spowers about how networks of small and medium-sized diversified farms, can solve so many global crises – from topsoil erosion and biodiversity loss to climate change itself.

Fri 11:00 Round Room - The Regeneration

The Cornish Caretakers is a family-friendly comedy written by and starring comedian Kernow King. It features the greatest Cornish men and women from history, like Bobby Leach, the first man to go over Niagara Falls in a barrel and Emily Hobhouse, who pioneered healthcare in Africa.

Sun 14:00 Park Stage

Craig Green is an award winning children's author who lives and works in Cornwall. He founded the educational publishing house 'Clickety Books' and is an Associate Lecturer of Children's Literature at Falmouth University. He'll be talking to Charlie Higson and helping present our young writers award.

Sun 12:00 Bowling Green

Daisy Lowe began modelling at the age of two - since then her megawatt smile has graced the runway for the likes of Chanel and Vivienne Westwood and shoots for Steven Klein and Terry Richardson. She is the author of cookery book Sweetness and Light, the host of Femme podcast and was a hugely popular contestant on Strictly Come Dancing in 2016.

Fri 18:00 Place of Cubs

Fri 20:00 Bowling Green

Daljit Nagra has won the Forward Prize, the South Bank Show Decibel Award and the Cholmondeley Award, and been short-listed for the Costa Prize and twice for the TS Eliot Prize. His poems have appeared in The New Yorker, the London Review of Books and the TLS.

Sat 16:20 Round Room

Damian Le Bas grew up surrounded by Gypsy history. His great-grandmother would tell him stories in the ancient Romani language about the ways her family lived and the lores of their people. He will be talking to Decca Aitkenheard about his powerful and soulful 2018 debut The Stopping Places, which was a Radio 4 Book of the Week.

Sat 14:00 Bowling Green

David Bramwell is a Sony-Award winning radio presenter. He'll be telling the amazing story of Kit Williams' book Masquerade and the fascinating, piratical and skulduggery events surrounding what remains the world's biggest treasure hunt.

Fri 11:45 Idler Academy

David Hepworth was involved in the launch and editing of magazines such as Smash Hits, Q, Mojo and The Word, and presented The Old Grey Whistle Test. He'll be talking about his latest book, A Fabulous Creation: How the LP Saved Our Lives with Mark Ellen and to Backlisted about the Beatles.

Fri 18:45, Sat 12:30 Bowling Green

Dr David Luke lectures in Psychology at Greenwich University, focussing on trans-personal experiences, anomalous phenomena and altered consciousness. He has organised festivals, retreats, pagan cabarets and pilgrimages. and published more than 100 academic papers and nine books.

Sat 11:00 Round Room - The Regeneration

David Restrepo is the director of the Coca & Rural Development programme in Universidad de los Andes, Colombia. It seeks to address the acute knowledge gaps regarding the coca plant, using participatory research methods that advance science whilst defending rural communities' cultural property.

Sat 11:00 Round Room - The Regeneration

Decca Aitkenhead is an award-winning interviewer for the Guardian, where she profiles leading figures in public life. She has been a journalist for 20 years and is a regular contributor to BBC Radio and TV. In 2016 she published her memoir, All At Sea.

Sat 11:15, 14:00 Bowling Green

Sat 17:15 Walled Garden

Dina Nayeri was born in Iran during the revolution and arrived in America when she was ten years old. In The Ungrateful Refugee she presents a real human story of what it is like to be forced to flee your home in hope of a better, safer life and to start afresh in a new culture.

Sat 11:15 Bowling Green

Duncan Minshull is a former BBC producer who has published three books about walking. His latest, Beneath My Feet, rounds up memorable walker-writers from William Hazlitt and George Sand, to Rebecca Solnit and Will Self. Join him for a talk before heading off on a stroll around the grounds.

Fri 16:15, Sat 10:00 Walled Garden

Elizabeth-Jane Burnett is a writer and environmentalist of English and Kenyan heritage. Her memoir The Grassling explores her connection to the Devon countryside that her family have farmed for generations and features immersive experiences in nature, from the taste of soil to the language of worms.

Sun 12:00 Walled Garden

Emily Maitlis is watched in living rooms across the country every night, picking apart the ever-quickening news cycle, and interviewing some of the most powerful individuals of our age. She will be talking about her new book, Airhead, giving readers a peek behind the curtain and making sense of some of the most memorable world events in recent years.

Sat 18:00 Bowling Green

Emily Sheffield is a journalist and editor with 25 years experience – having worked with the Guardian, Evening Standard, Vogue and Sky News. She is the founder of #ThisMuchIKnow, an interactive, global news community to help you connect with current world events and drive positive change.

Fri 12:30 Orangery

Emma Warren and her friends set up Jockey Slut magazine in the mid 90s. She will be talking to Hasseb Iqbal about the importance of having places to gather, inspired by her book Make Some Space and their shared history of the influential ad-hoc music venue Total Refreshment Centre.

Fri 13:00, 16:00 CBTR

Extinction Rebellion Tamsin Omond, the author and environmental activist whose speech mobilised the masses in April's climate change marches, will be joined in the Fashion Foundation by Sara Arnold, a sustainable fashion activist. They will discuss realistic and creative ways to take direct action. This one makes everyone a Rebel.

Fri 12:30 Orangery

Frederick Taylor is a bestselling historian whose books have changed our understanding of the 20th Century. His latest 1939: The War Nobody Wanted draws on original British and German sources, including recorded interviews, contemporary diaries, memoirs and newspapers.

Sat 15:15 Walled Garden

Gina Rippon takes us back through centuries of sexism in her new book The Gendered Brain. Unpacking the stereotypes that bombard us from our earliest moments she reveals how science has often asked the wrong questions, with huge repercussions for women and men, for parents and children.

Fri 16:45 Bowling Green

Gordon Kerr worked in publishing before becoming a full-time writer. His debut novel The Partisan Heart is set in Britain and the Italian Alps during the Second World War. He is the author of a number of non-fiction books as well as short histories of Europe, Africa, China, and the First World War.

Sat 15:15 Walled Garden

Guy Singh-Watson is an inspirational figure in the world of organic farming. Over the last 30 years he has transformed Riverford into a national veg-box scheme delivering to around 50,000 customers a week. He will be examining the ethics of commerce and asking 'Can Business be Good?'

Sat 14:15 Idler Academy

Hafsah Aneela Bashir is a Manchester based poet playwright who works with marginalized and underrepresented communities delivering creative writing workshops. She will be sharing poetry from her debut collection The Celox And The Clot published by Burning Eye Books last year with Manchester Literature Festival.

Fri 17:50, Sat 18:10 Round Room

Hal Cruttenden is one of the top stand-ups working in the UK, and a highly accomplished writer and actor. He has appeared on Live at the Apollo, Have I Got News For You and The Royal Variety Performance as well as shows such as Mock the Week and The Great British Bake Off: An Extra Slice.
Sat 13:30 Park Stage

Hannah MacInnes is a Freelance Journalist and a regular interviewer and Podcast Host for the How To: Academy, chairing interviews, panels and debates across a wide range of subjects and current issues. She is a regular at Sunday Papers Live and hosts the series and podcast A Cup Of Tea With.
Sat 18:00 Bowling Green

Haseeb Iqbal is a spoken word poet, podcast host and DJ. He will be talking to Emma Warren about how he found his home in the middle of the grassroots DIY culture that sits around the new London jazz scene, and they both frequented an influential ad-hoc music venue called Total Refreshment Centre.
Fri 13:00 CBTR

Hilary Gallo has a background as a negotiator and for the past three years has been running Fear Hack workshops. This session will enable you to talk about your fears in an open way. Imposter Syndrome? Anxiety? Big challenge coming up? Learn to hack your fears and you'll soon see things differently.
Fri 11:45 Idler Academy

Hiromi Nakajima works in diverse media and engages with subjects from fairytale imagining to existential reflections. Nestled in the branches of a tree, she will read from her first book Short Notes. This performance will be filmed, photographed and live-streamed on instagram @waugh.office
Sat 18:00 A Treestump, near the Pampas

Hugo Spowers ran a business designing and building racing cars until environmental concerns led him away from motorsport. He has since set up Riversimple to develop Fuel Cell Electric Vehicles. He will be talking about the ‘circular economy’ and how ecological design can reshape our world.
Fri 12:30 Round Room - The Regeneration

Hugo Williams's poems engage themes of memory, childhood, and sexuality with a plain-spoken yet wry voice. The author of more than a dozen collections his additional honours include the Queen's Gold Medal for Poetry, the Geoffrey Faber Memorial Prize, and the Cholmondeley Award. His new collection, Lines Off, is published by Faber.
Sun 15:50 Round Room

Iain Gately is the author of books on subjects as varied as Alcohol and Rush Hour traffic. His 2018 memoir, The Secret Surfer, was shortlisted for the Stanfords Travel Writing Prize and expolres an activity that attracts loners, obsessives and eccentrics. Check out the Dick Pearce bellyboarding workshop beforehand too!
Sun 10:45 Walled Garden

Ian Ross opened Britain's first automatic car wash, co-founded Pirate Station Radio Caroline and briefly co-managed The Animals. In 1979 he opened Flipper's Roller Boogie Palace in Hollywood and three years later became a butler in Beverly Hills. The author of four memoirs, his latest, Beached in Calabria evokes his adventures in southern Italy.
Sat 12:00 Walled Garden

Imelda May, born and raised in The Liberties area of Dublin, has become one of Ireland's most celebrated female artists in history. As well as selling millions of records worldwide, Imelda is also a Women's Rights Activist and Poet, currently compiling her poems for a first poetry book.
Sat 18:30 Round Room

Iona Lee is a poet, performer and illustrator from East Lothian who fell in to the spoken word scene at the tender age of 17 as a way of getting in to pubs underage. She won the title of Scottish Slam Champion in 2016. And her debut pamphlet was published by Polygon in 2018.
Fri 18:10, Sun 17:30 Round Room

Jay Armstrong is founder of Elementum, a literary journal launched in 2016, with a focus on nature writing and visual storytelling. In its pages folklore sits alongside scientific findings, and visual narratives carry as much weight as written stories.
Sun 12:00 Walled Garden

Jess Green is a performance poet and playwright. Her poetry and music show A Self Help Guide To Being In Love With Jeremy Corbyn based on her second collection received critical acclaim at the Edinburgh Fringe in 2018. She is the BBC Slam Champion and a Scottish National Slam Finalist.
Fri 15:00, Sun 17:10 Round Room

Joanna Neary is an award-winning comedian (TV's Ideal, Man Down, Count Arthur Strong) whose latest performance Wife On Earth showcases her much-loved alter-ego the repressed housewife Mrs Celia Jesson. Travelling about in time and space, she explores the secrets to living a fulfilled life.
Sun 16:45 Idler Academy

Joelle Taylor is an award-winning poet, playwright and author who recently toured the world with her latest collection Songs My Enemy Taught Me. She is the author of three full poetry collections and three plays and is completing her debut book of short stories The Night Alphabet.
Sun 18:30 The Round Room

John Lanchester has written four novels including Capital, which was adapted for TV by the BBC, and three works of non-fiction including How to Speak Money, a primer in popular economics. He will be talking to Suzi Feay about his latest novel The Wall, a dystopian story about a broken world you will recognise as your own – and about what might be found when all is lost.
Fri 14:45 Bowling Green

John Mitchinson is a writer and co-founder of Unbound, the award-winning crowdfunding platform for books. He will be co-hosting the Backlisted podcast alongside Andy Miller and with special guests incuding the likes of Max Porter, David Hepworth and Mark Ellen.
Fri, Sat 12:30 Bowling Green

John Osborne writes poems, stories and scripts. His poetry has appeared on Radio 4, Radio 1 and BBC 6Music and has been published in the Guardian and The Big Issue. He has had six half hour storytelling shows broadcast on Radio 4. He's back with some brand new poems.
Fri 18:30, Sat 15:40 Round Room

Johnny Martin presents “Accounting for Bohemians”. Johnny is an experienced Finance Director who demystifies business numbers, and a partner at the British Library Business & IP Centre where he runs cashflow workshops. His latest book is Understanding Your Business Finances.
Fri 14:15 Idler Academy

Jojo Mehta was co-founder of the Stop Ecocide: Change the Law initiative to establish ‘the Missing International Crime of our Time’. She explains the power of this simple law to stem the tide of corporate destruction, realigning human law with a higher, universal law - and how you can be part of that.
Sat 12:30 Round Room - The Regeneration

Jon Gray and Jamie Keenan have been designing book covers for over 20 years, for authors like Zadie Smith, Nick Hornby and Stephen King. Their work has won awards on both sides of the Atlantic and featured in exhibitions worldwide. In an illustrated presentation, they will explain the mysterious art of book jacket design.
Sat 10:15 Bowling Green

Jon Savage is the author of England's Dreaming: The Sex Pistols and Punk Rock. He'll be talking about his latest book This Searing Light, The Sun and Everything Else, which tells the story of how Joy Division resurrected a city and galvanised a generation of fans, artists and musicians.
Sat 15:30 CBTR

Jonathan Coe has won many literary prizes at home and abroad. His novels include What a Carve Up!, The Rotters' Club, and Number 11. His latest, the acclaimed Middle England follows a vivid cast of characters through a time of immense change. It is a story of modern England: of nostalgia and delusion; of bewilderment and barely-suppressed rage.
Sat 15:30 Idler Academy

Jonathan Hoban is a leading Integrative Psychotherapist and the author of Walk with your Wolf. He uses Walking Therapy to tackle issues of work-related stress, addiction anxiety and depression. Join him on a therapeutic wander around the site.
Sat 11:15 Idler Academy

Jonathan Ree is a Philosopher and historian who offers a radical reevaluation of the history of philosophy. Revealing research from his new book Witcraft: The Invention of Philosophy in English, he celebrates the work of philosophers, literary authors and the ordinary men and women who engaged with philosophy in their daily lives.
Fri 13:00 Idler Academy

Jonathan Scott is a writer, record collector and astronomy geek. He'll be talking about his book The Vinyl Frontier, which tells the story of the Voyager Golden Record, a genre-hopping multi-media LP sent by NASA to the outer planets in 1977. Curated by Carl Sagan it was a calling card, a handshake to any passing alien and a sound essay of life on Earth.
Fri 17:00 Walled Garden

Jonny Fluffypunk fuses autobiography, disillusionment and surreal whimsy in his spoken word act. His books – The Sustainable Nihilists' Handbook and Poundland Rimbau – are both published by Burning Eye. His show, How I Came To Be Where I Never Was, is about being the first punk in the village.
Sun 15:00, 17:00 Round Room

Josh Cohen is a psychoanalyst, and Professor of Literary Theory at Goldsmiths. His latest book, Not Working: Why We have to Stop explores the pleasures of inactivity. Drawing on clinical and psychoanalytic experience, he gets to the heart of the apathy so many of us feel when faced with contemporary life.
Sun 11:45 Idler Academy

J. R. Carpenter is an award-winning artist, writer, and, practice-led researcher working across print, performance, and digital media. Her poetry collection An Ocean of Static was highly commended by the Forward Prizes 2018. Her appearance is supported by the Eccles Centre at the British Library.
Sat 11:30 Walled Garden

Kamin Mohammadi was born in Iran in 1969 and exiled to the UK in 1979. Her latest book is Bella Figura: How To Live, Love and Eat the Italian Way. She will be hosting a workshop that will help you approach life like an Italian - to transform your sense of self, your health and your waistline!
Fri 14:15 Idler Academy

Kat Sinclair is a poet and student. Her research explores the relationship between gender and robotics, her poetry does not. Kat's first pamphlet The Very Real Prospect was published this year. She is an organising member of the Devil's Dyke Network, a Brighton-based queer feminist arts collective.
Fri 15:40, Sun 15:30 Round Room

Kate Spicer is a journalist and documentary maker. In her memoir Lost Dog, she explains how her decision to adopt a shabby rescue dog called Wolfy saved her from herself. She'll be joined onstage by Wolfy and will discuss the enduring mystery of the relationship between human and canine.
Sat 14:15 Walled Garden

Kate Williams is an author, social historian and broadcaster. She has appeared on programmes from The Great British Bake Off to election coverage. Her latest book Rival Queens, reveals the relationship between Mary, Queen of Scots and Queen Elizabeth I, one that would end in secret assassination plots, devastating betrayal and a terrible final act.
Sun 11:00 Bowling Green

Katie Hale is a poet, journalist and educator. Inspired by Robinson Crusoe and Frankenstein, her extraordinary debut novel My Name Is Monster is about power, the things that society leaves imprinted on us when the rules no longer apply, and the strength and the danger of a mother's love.
Sat 10:45 Walled Garden

Katy Brand is an award-winning writer, comedian and actor – her ITV sketch show, Katy Brand's Big Ass Show, ran for three series. Her debut novel was Brenda Monk is Funny and her forthcoming book I Carried A Watermelon, narrating her life-long obsession with Dirty Dancing, will be published in late 2019.
Sat 16:00, Sun 14:00 Bowling Green

Kavita Puri is an award-winning journalist and broadcaster. Her landmark series Partition Voices for BBC Radio 4 won the Royal Historical Society's Radio and Podcast Award and its Public History Prize. The book of the same name examines the experiences of those affected by Indian partition in 1947.
Sat 11:15 Bowling Green

Keggie Carew has lived in Ireland, Barcelona, Texas, Auckland and London. She is the author of Dadland, which won the 2016 COSTA biography award, and a new memoir Quicksand Tales. She will share her funniest, most humiliating, and all-too-relatable moments with Decca Aitkenhead.
Sat 17:15 Walled Garden

Kerry Hudson is proudly working class but the poverty she grew up in was all-encompassing, grinding and often dehumanising. Twenty years later her life is unrecognisable. As a prizewinning novelist and writer she often finds herself looking over her shoulder, caught between worlds. Lowborn is her new memoir, an exploration of where she came from.
Sat 11:00 Walled Garden

Kurt Jackson is an environmentalist who seamlessly blends art and politics. His focus on the fragility of the natural world has led to artist-in-residencies with Greenpeace, the Eden Project and for nearly 20 years, Glastonbury Festival. He'll be in conversation with Tim Smit about his life and work.
Sun 13:00 Bowling Green

Lavinia Greenlaw is an English poet and author of novels short stories, plays and non-fiction, notably The Importance of Music to Girls. She will be reading her poetry and talking about the influence of the band Joy Division with the writer Jon Savage.
Sat 11:45, 15:30 CBTR

Lily Allen released her 4th LP, No Shame, to great critical acclaim and a Mercury Prize nomination in June last year. In November, her memoir, My Thoughts Exactly, became a No.1 Sunday Times Bestseller. Lily will be talking her music, her book, and everything else with Guardian writer Sophie Heawood.
Sat 17:30 Park Stage

Louise Fazackerley comes fresh off tour with John Cooper Clarke. Expect seaweed-skirted girls, estate rats and the stalking of Jarvis Cocker. As seen and heard on BBC Radio and in the Guardian.
Fri 14:40, Sat 17:30 Round Room

Luke Turner is the co-founder and editor of The Quietus. His first book, Out of the Woods, is a memoir about the irresistible potency of the forest, and the possibility of learning to find peace in the grey areas of life. He will be accompanied by Mark Williamson, aka Spaceship Mark.
Sun 15:45 CBTR

Luke Wright is a poet and playwright; the winner of a Fringe First, a Stage Award, a Saboteur Award and the co-curator of the festival's poetry programme. Big-hearted and quick witted, Wright's poems have been lauded by everyone from Patti Smith to The Libertines. In 2019 he celebrates the twentieth anniversary of his first gig.
Fri 17:00 Park Stage

Marcel Theroux is an award-winning writer and broadcaster and the author of five critically acclaimed and award winning novels, (including his latest, 2018's The Secret Books). He'll be hosting the famous Port Eliot Literary Pub Quiz on Saturday evening. There will be prizes!
Sat 19:00 Bowling Green

Listings

Maria Ferguson is a writer and performer whose first solo show, Fat Girls Don't Dance, sold out across the UK. It won the Saboteur Award for Best Spoken Word Show 2017, and is published by Oberon Books. Her new show, Essex Girl won Show of the Week at Vault Festival.
Fri 18:50 Round Room

Mark Ellen started out at NME and then became editor of Smash Hits, Q, Select, the managing editor of MOJO and an editor-in-chief at EMAP. He is the author of Rock Stars Stole My Life, a memoir that maps out his love affair with rock and roll. He will be talking to David Hepworth and with the Backlisted team about the best writing on the Beatles.
Fri 18:45, Sat 12:30 Bowling Green

Dr Mark Vernon is a psychotherapist, writer and teacher. He will be talking about his latest book, A Secret History of Christianity. A panoramic sweep through the history of human consciousness, it explains how our imaginations even now, can carry us beyond the mundane to far richer worlds.
Sat 11:45 Idler Academy

Martin Parr is an internationally acclaimed documentary photographer who is also known for his witty collections of twentieth-century ephemera. Martin has published over 100 books including Boring Postcards, and this year's Space Dogs. A major retrospective, Only Human: Martin Parr, opened at the National Portrait Gallery in March and is accompanied by a new book.
Sat 15:00 Bowling Green

Matthew De Abaitua's latest book was the acclaimed Self & I, an account of his time as live-in personal assistant to the writer Will Self. He is also the author of science fiction books including THEM and The Destructives. He will be hosting this year's Spelling Bee on the Bowling Green and interviewing various authors.
Fri 14:00 Walled Garden
Fri 20:00 Bowling Green
Sun 10:30 Idler Academy

Matthew Green is the author of the acclaimed book London: A Travel Guide Through Time and is currently writing on lost cities for Faber & Faber. He'll be talking about the forgotten cities of Britain, from the ancient stone cottages of Skara Brae to the ruins of Greyfriars Priory.
Fri 16:45 Idler Academy

Max Porter's first novel, Grief Is the Thing with Feathers won many awards including the International Dylan Thomas Prize. The stage adaptation starring Cillian Murphy was a sell-out hit at the Barbican in spring 2019. Among other things, he will be talking about his new novel Lanny and getting very excited about Russell Hoban's classic novel Riddley Walker
Fri 12:30, 17:30 Bowling Green
Fri 15:15 Walled Garden
Sun 13:45 CBTR

Michael Bird is a Cornish-based writer and art historian whose books include the seminal 100 Ideas that Changed Art. He will be giving an illustrated talk, showing how developments in materials and technology have radically changed the way that art is produced, from ancient times to the present day.
Fri 12:00 Walled Garden

Michelle Madsen is a poet, theatre maker, activist and investigative journalist whose work uses the absurd, the unexpected and the subversive to question power, privilege and the structures we live by. Michelle will be performing work from her new collection and excerpts from her theatre shows.
Fri 14:30, 17:00 Round Room

Miranda Sawyer is an English journalist and broadcaster. She is a regular arts critic in print, on television and on radio and the author of books on suburbia and mid life crises. She's interviewing the likes of Charlie Higson and Jeremy Deller, and being interviewed for Rosie Wilby's podcast.
Sat 11:15 Orangery
Sat 15:30 Park Stage
Sat 17:00, Sun 14:00 Bowling Green

Molly Naylor is a scriptwriter, performer and poet. She co-wrote and created the Sky One sitcom After Hours and adapted her award-winning first solo stage show for BBC Radio 4. Her debut poetry collection, Badminton, is published by Burning Eye. Her new stage show is LIGHTS! PLANETS! PEOPLE!
Sat 17:50, Sun 17:50 Round Room

Murray Lachlan Young is one of the UK's foremost performance poets. BBC 6's Resident poet and a regular fixture on Radio 4's Saturday Live. Expect flamboyant, punchy wit, brooding subtext and empathetic humour. (His more family-friendly kids show is on Saturday.)
Fri 20:15, Sat 14:15 Park Stage

Natasha Carthew is a Cornish poet, writer and Carnegie Award shortlisted author. Her acclaimed debut novel All Rivers Run Free is a story of life in the margins, that shines a light on the working class Cornish experience that is often overlooked.
Sat 11:00 Walled Garden

Paddy Bramwells is a comedian, actor, and compere. He first hosted the Outside Circus Stage at Glastonbury in 1988 and has worked Port Eliot's Bowling Green Stage from the start. A consummate professional he once, on this very stage, introduced the Michelin starred chef Angela Hartnett as Angela Lansbury. You are safe in his hands.
All weekend Bowling Green

Patrick Gale is a Cornish-based author of sixteen novels. His TV drama Man in an Orange Suit, starring Vanessa Redgrave, won an International Emmy in 2018. His latest novel Take Nothing With You is a sad-funny comedy of resilience and survival, childish hero worship and messy adult love lives.
Sun 15:00 Bowling Green

Paul Foot studied mathematics at Oxford, with the intention of becoming an accountant before pursuing a career as a stand-up. Described as "the missing link between Ross Noble and Frankie Howerd" (Evening Standard), his new show, Image Conscious, premiered at the 2018 Edinburgh Fringe.
Sun 15:00 Park Stage

Paul Mason is an award-winning writer and film-maker and author of the bestseller Postcapitalism. His new book Clear Bright Future: A Radical Defence of the Human Being, exposes various existential attacks on the values of truth, rights and consciousness that have underpinned Western societies for 400 years.
Sat 16:45 Idler Academy

Rachael Allen was born in Cornwall and is the poetry editor at Granta and co-founder of the poetry press clinic. Kingdomland (Faber, 2019) is her first collection. She will be reading alongside Will Burns, Lavinia Greenlaw Rebecca Tamás and others.
Sat 11:45, Sun 12:00 CBTR

Raymond Antrobus was born in London to an English mother and Jamaican father and was diagnosed as deaf at the age of six. His collection The Perseverance was named a poetry book of the year by the Guardian and The Sunday Times, and earlier this year won the Ted Hughes Prize and became the first poet to win the Rathbones Folio Prize.
Sat 17:10, Sun 18:10 Round Room

Rebecca Tamás is a poet based in York, where she works as a Lecturer at St John University. She is the co-editor of Spells: Occult Poetry for the 21st Century, published by Ignota. Her first collection, WITCH, focusing on feminist language and occult practice, is published by Penned in the Margins.
Sun 12:00 CBTR

The Reverend Fergus Butler-Gallie is the author of A Field Guide to the English Clergy, a celebration of the more eccentric members of the Church. It includes drinkers, lion tamers, suicidal missionaries, agnostics, spies, and even one piratical Archbishop (many of whom hail from Cornwall!)
Sat 16:15 Walled Garden
Sun 10:00 The Church

Richard King is the author of The Lark Ascending, a history of the British countryside told through music and landscape. Travelling from the Lothian Hills to the Suffolk shoreline – and from Vaughan Williams to Brian Eno – it celebrates the British countryside as a living, working, and occasionally rancorous environment.
Fri 16:00 CBTR

Richard Larn OBE is a former navy diver and underwater explosives expert who established Cornwall's famous Charlestown Shipwreck Museum. He will be talking to Tim Smit about the ships that foundered along the Cornish Coastline and which feature in his new book, Sea of Storms.
Sun 15:00 Walled Garden

Robert Elms started out as a journalist, writing for The Face and NME and has become well-loved for his eponymous radio show on BBC London. He'll be talking about his latest book London Made Us, an evocative memoir that brings to life his beloved city and its myriad reinventions of the last half century.
Fri 13:45 Bowling Green

Robin Ince is an award-winning stand-up comic and the co-host of the Radio 4 series The Infinite Monkey Cage with Brian Cox. His new book I'm a Joke and So are You, uses the life of the stand-up as a way of exploring some of life's biggest questions.
Fri 18:00 Park Stage

Rory Spowers is launching a new platform at Port Eliot called The Re-Generation highlighting systems change in the areas of Food, Health, Economics, Community, Culture and Consciousness. His books include A Year in Green Tea and Tuk Tuks and Rising Tides. Most recently, Rory was a writer on Bruce Parry's 2017 feature documentary Tawai.
Fri – Sun Round Room - The Regeneration

Rosie Wilby is an award-winning comedian. Her book Is Monogamy Dead? was shortlisted for the Diva Literary Awards. She will be recording an interview with Miranda Sawyer and Katy Brand about their best and worst romantic breakup stories for her podcast The Breakup Monologues.
Sun 14:00 Bowling Green

Rosy Carrick's eccentric style, dense rhyme structures and forceful imagery have won her international acclaim, as well as firmly cementing her place as one of the UK's most exciting contemporary poets. She is co-curator, alongside Luke Wright, of the Port Eliot festival poetry programme. She will be reading from her new collection Chokey.
Fri 17:20 Round Room

Roy Wilkinson, author of the acclaimed family/forestry/British Sea Power memoir Do It For Your Mum, is talking to Ru Callender on Friday and presenting his music-and-nature quiz on Saturday - there will be prizes!
Fri 14:30, 13:45 Sat CBTR

Ru Callender is one quarter of Callender, Callender, Cauty & Drummond Undertakers, a partnership with Jimmy Cauty and Bill Drummond of The Justified Ancients of Mu Mu and The KLF. Ru will be in conversation with Roy Wilkinson.
Fri 14:30 CBTR

Russell Brand is a celebrated stand-up comedian, and a successful author, broadcaster, actor, podcaster, political commentator and mental health and drug rehabilitation activist. He will be talking to Rory Spowers, as part of the Regeneration platform, about our understanding of consciousness and how this might inform current global crises.
Sun 17:00 Park Stage - The Regeneration
Sat 18:00 Place of Cubs

Sally Jenkinson is a poet who lives and works in the Forest of Dean, but she grew up in Doncaster. She has published two short collections Sweat-borne Secrets (2012) and Boys (2016) with Burning Eye Books and is very excited to be part of the hosting team for tthe Poetry Stage.
Sat 14:30, 17:00 Round Room

Sandy Burnett is one of our greatest authorities in the field of classical music. He has worked as music director for the National Theatre, the Royal Shakespeare Company and in the West End. He'll tell the story of the Age of Jazz, from its emergence, through to the dawn of Swing.
Fri 15:30 Idler Academy

Sean Langan Is a BAFTA nominated journalist and documentary film-maker who has made his name travelling to the world's most volatile environments armed with nothing more than a camera. In 2008, while filming for Channel 4, Sean was kidnapped by a group associated with the Taliban.
Sun 15:00 Walled Garden

Shane Mauss was awarded Best Stand-Up at The HBO US Comedy Festival in 2007. Since then he has been headlining shows all over the world and appearing as a guest on podcasts such as Marc Maron's WTF He'll be talking to Rory Spowers and performing his acclaimed stand-up show.
Sat 16:30 Park Stage
Sun 12:30 Round Room - The Regeneration

Shappi Khorsandi established herself as one of the country's finest comedians in 2006 with her show, Asylum Speaker. After a successful year on tour in 2018 with Mistress & Misfit, Shappi brings us her hilarious new tour Skittish Warrior... Confessions of a Club Comic.
Sat 18:30 Park Stage

Simon Armitage is the UK's new poet laureate! Born in West Yorkshire and best-known for his poetry, he also writes extensively for TV, theatre and radio. He has published two novels, three best-selling memoirs over a dozen poetry collections. He will read from his new collection Sandettie Light Vessel Automatic.
Sat 19:00 Round Room

Simon Farnaby is an actor and writer whose credits include This Time with Alan Partridge, The Detectorists and The Mighty Boosh and the films Paddington, Mindhorn, and Rogue One. He was co-writer of Paddington 2 and worked with Julian Barrett on the screenplay for Mindhorn. He will be hosting a workshop on the Art of Screenwriting.
Fri 18:00 Idler Academy

Sophie Heawood is a writer and journalist who writes for publications including the Guardian, Vogue and the Sunday Times. Her first book, The Hungover Games, will be published by Jonathan Cape next year. She will be talking to Lily Allen.
Sat 17:30 Park Stage

Suzi Feay is an arts journalist, writing for the FT, the Guardian and various magazines. She is associate editor of The London Magazine and head of the Critics' Circle books section. She teaches at Brunel University and appears regularly on BBC Radio 4.
Fri 14:45, 17:45, Sat 16:00, Sun 11:00 Bowling Green

Stephanie Theobald is a broadcaster and writer known for her work around sexuality and alternative feminism. Her memoir, Sex Drive: On The Road To A Pleasure Revolution is a road trip across America fuelled by masturbation. The event will be followed by a game of Solo Sex Bingo.
Sat 18:00 Idler Academy

Tim Clare is a stand-up poet with several award-winning shows under his belt, and the author of two novels and a memoir. He'll be talking to Tristan Donovan about board games and to Matthew de Abaitua about his latest novel The Ice House, a dark fantasy tale and a timely meditation on good and evil.
Fri 10:00, 14:00 Walled Garden

Tim Lott is an award-winning author of fiction, non-fiction and journalism. His books include a memoir The Scent of Dried Roses, and White City Blue, which won the Whitbread First Novel Award. He will be in conversation with Matthew De Abaitua.
Sun 10:20 Idler Academy

Tim Smit is the Executive Vice Chairman and Co-founder of the Eden Project. Before that he worked for ten years in the music industry as a composer and producer. He will be in conversation with Kurt Jackson, talking about his life and work, and with Richard Larn about Cornish shipwrecks.
Sun 13:00 Bowling Green
Sun 14:45 Walled Garden

Listings

Tim Turnbull will be reading from his third poetry collection Avanti! as well as new work and poems from previous collections. In a previous life he earned a living as a forestry labourer and played in punk bands but is now involved in adult literacy work.
Fri 16:20 Round Room

Tom Hodgkinson is the founder and editor of The Idler. In 2011 he and his partner Victoria Hull launched The Idler Academy. Despite his idle tendencies, he will be busy interviewing the likes of Simon Farnaby, Jonathan Coe and Youth and chairing proceedings at the Idler all weekend.
Fri 10:30, 18:00, Sun 15:30 Idler Academy

Tony Law is a Canadian surrealist and master story-teller. A Chortle Award winner and Edinburgh Comedy Award nominee, he has appeared on Have I Got News For You, 8 Out Of 10 Cats, Loose Ends and Infinite Monkey Cage. The Telegraph have dubbed him 'The King of post-modern nonsense'.
Sun 16:00 The Park

Tristan Donovan is a renowned games expert. He'll be talking to writer Tim Clare about his latest book, It's All a Game, tracing the evolution of board games across cultures and continents, from ancient Mesopotamia, via Backgammon, Operation, Mouse Trap to Monopoly. Come and play along...
Fri 10:00 Walled Garden

Tristan Gooley is an author and natural navigator. His latest book, Wild Signs and Star Paths (2018), shows how you can sense direction from stars and plants, forecast weather from woodland sounds and predict the next action of an animal from its body language - instantly.
Sat 13:00 Idler Academy

Una McCormack is a science fiction writer best known for her writing for franchises such as Doctor Who and Star Trek. Her most recent book, The Undeclared is a feminist take on High Plains Drifter... in space. She'll be talking about Russell Hoban's 1980s masterpiece Riddley Walker.
Fri 12:30 Bowling Green

Viv Groskop is a writer, stand-up comedian and TV and radio presenter. Her latest book is How to Own the Room: Women and the Art of Brilliant Speaking. She'll be talking about what it is that our heroines do to make us sit up and listen and how you can achieve that impact in your own life.
Fri 11:15 Bowling Green

We Hear America Sing 2019 marks 200 years since the birth of Walt Whitman, who mapped out new territory for poetry, and the centenary of Lawrence Ferlinghetti who opened it ever wider. Join Bodmin Moor Poetry Festival Directors Ann Gray, David Woolley & Friends in celebration of these two celebrated poets and a host of others who sing with an unmistakable American voice.
Sun 10:00 Walled Garden

Will Ashon previously ran BIG DADA records with acts including Roots Manuva and Kate Tempest. He'll be discussing his book Chamber Music: About the Wu-Tang with Max Porter, examining the impact of the group's seminal debut album and touching on the history of jazz, racism, US politics and Hong Kong martial arts movies.
Fri 15:15 Walled Garden

Will Burns is Poet-in-Residence at Caught by the River. His latest project with Hannah Peel, the album Chalk Hill Blue, fuses poetry and music to channel the minute shifts in the air and atmosphere of a place. He'll be joining Hannah to discuss the project with Max Porter before a live performance.
Sat 11:45, Sun 13:45, 14:15 CBTR

Will Harris is a London-based poet whose first poetry book, RENDANG, is forthcoming from Granta in 2020. He is a contributor to Spells: Occult Poetry for the 21st Century, edited by Rebecca Tamás and will be reading from and discussing the collection with Tamás alongside Rachael Allen and AK Blakemore.
Sun 12:00 CBTR

Will Hodgkinson is the chief rock and pop critic of The Times and author of the music books Guitar Man, Song Man and The Ballad of Britain and the childhood memoir, The House Is Full Of Yogis. Will lives in Peckham with his Cornish wife, the fashion academic NJ Stevenson, and their teenage children.
Fri 13:45 Bowling Green

William Sieghart CBE established the Forward Prizes for Poetry in 1992, and founded National Poetry Day in 1994. Meditating on 'the problems that really matter' his Poetry Pharmacy provides tried-and-true Prescriptions for the Heart, Mind and Soul.
Sun 14:15 Idler Academy

Yara Rodriguez Fowler grew up in an Anglo-Brazilian household in London, where she still lives. Stubborn Archivist is her debut novel of growing up between cultures and of finding your space within them, told through fragments of history, conversations, and the eyes of family members.
Sat 10:45 Walled Garden

Youth has been there, seen it and done it. He can go from the giddy heights of producing albums by the biggest superstars on the planet – from Paul McCartney to Killing Joke The Verve and Pink Floyd – to the deepest and weirdest underground dance scenes on the planet.
Sun 15:30 Idler Academy

Zing Tsjeng's Forgotten Women series of books uncovers the stories of the women who have changed the course of history. She is the Executive Editor of UK VICE.com. and has appeared on Radio 4's "Late Night Woman's Hour" and written for Dazed, the Guardian and Broadly.
Sun 13:00 Idler Academy

FAMILIES!

We've scoured the programme to put all the most family-friendly events in one place.

Aardman Model-Making Join Will Harding, Aardman's expert model-maker, as he guides you step-by-step through the process. You'll learn how to craft your very own model of one their world famous characters: Gromit, Shaun the Sheep or Feathers McGraw. Suitable for all the family.
Fri 10:30, 13:00, 15:30 Sat 11:30, 14:00, 16:30, Sun 10:30, 13:00, 15:30 Hole & Corner

Aerial Hoop Workshops Cirque de Silk's workshops are a fantastic way of improving strength and flexibility and a great place to have fun and take your mind of things. Their instructors will ensure you feel confident and happy when achieving new moves.
Fri 16:00, Sun 10:00, 13:00 Workshop Barn

Aerial Silks Ever wanted to run away with the circus? This exciting gymnastic artform will leave you floating in air as your body wraps and knots around two lengths of suspended fabric. And just imagine the photo opportunities! (aged 3+)
Sat 13:00 – 16:00 Wildlings Wood

Alice in Wonderland Treasure Hunt will lead you on a merry dance as you solve riddles and unravel rhyming couplets to make your way around the site. Expect potions, fun games and prizes. Finish with a Mad Hatter's Tea Party and a sing-song.
Fri – Sat 11:00 – 13:30 Great Outdoors, Meet at Workshop Barn

Bedtime Stories: Read by Russell Brand and Daisy Lowe Last year it was Teri Hatcher and Kernow King... this year, we're chuffed to say that Russell Brand and Daisy Lowe are two of the brilliant storytellers bringing the Wildlings Wood stage to a memorable close each evening.
Fri 18:00 (Daisy) Sat 18:00 (Russell) Place of Cubs

Botanical Illustration Sarah Jane Humphrey is an award winning artist and bestselling author. She will guide you through the basics of drawing beautiful flowers and foliage with precision and poise.
Fri 13:00 Wildlings Workshops

The Cornish Caretakers is a family-friendly comedy written by and starring comedian Kernow King. It will introduce you to great Cornish men and women from history, like Bobby Leach, the first man to go over Niagara Falls in a barrel and Emily Hobhouse, who pioneered healthcare in Africa.
Sun 14:00 Park Stage

Charlie Higson is an author, actor, producer, comedian and writer who with Paul Whitehouse co-created and starred in the BAFTA winning sketch show The Fast Show. His Young Bond series of books has sold over a million copies in the UK. He will be talking to Craig Green about writing for young readers and presenting our young writers' prize.
Sun 12:00 Bowling Green

Circus Fun Time Have a go at juggling, flower sticks, hula hoops, diabolo, spinning plates or try out balancing on a bouncing ball or stilts. Suitable for children of all ages. Under 8s please bring an adult.
Fri 16:30, Sat 10:00, Sun 16:30 Place of Cubs

Circus Photo Booth Let's Make Art and Stay Gold present the ultimate festival photobooth. Under their guidance you'll make and decorate crowns and masks... or even turn yourself into a flower!
Sat 13:00 Wildlings Workshops

Craig Green is an award winning children's author who lives and works in Cornwall. He founded the publishing house 'Clickety Books' and is an Associate Lecturer of Children's Literature at Falmouth University. He'll be talking to Charlie Higson and helping present our young writers' award.
Sun 12:00 Bowling Green

Diggory Piper: The Worst Pirate Ever! is a true tale about a Launceston lad, who goes to sea to help defeat the Spanish Armada. Incorporating song, dance, audience participation, and Cornish Language, this is a fun filled tale suitable for kids aged 3+ and their responsible adults.
Fri 10:00, 13:00 Place of Cubs

Festival Flag Sewing Sarah from Just Sewn Stories will show you how to use eco-friendly hand-sewing machines and simple hand-stitching techniques. Rummage through tubs of colourful fabric, embroider words and images, and embellish.
Fri 14:30 Wildlings Workshops

Flint and Steel Forest School has been running since 2015, encouraging children to learn and take risks in a safe environment. They'll be showing children how to survive in the wild, running knot-making and puppetry workshops, teaching cooking, fire-lighting... and more.
Fri – Sun 10:00 – 17:00 Wildlings Wood

Flint and Steel Forest School Overnight Camp-Out A night under the stars for 9-12 year-olds! Build shelters to sleep in, cook up a campfire supper and enjoy learning other survival skills. When morning comes, wake to the birdsong. Booking is essential (Workshop Barn Reception.)
Fri 17:00 – Sat 09:00 Flint & Steel Forest School

Foraging Join Vix Hill-Ryder of The Family Foraging Kitchen to gather hedgerow and woodland ingredients and transform them into yummy creations in her outdoor kitchen. Make hedgerow marshmallows and wild flower chocolate barks, big bubbling pots of soups, breads and hedgy pestos!
Fri – Sun 10:30 – 12:30 Wild Kitchen

Forest School Breakfast and Supper Clubs Give your child the chance to learn some skills, make festival friends and explore the woods! They'll build a den, light a fire, decorate a flag, toast marshmallows and play games before prepping and cooking a meal guided by our wonderful staff.
Thurs, Sat 9:00 – 12:00 and 15:00 – 18:00 Flint and Steel Forest School

Kidz Comedy Club Work with a parent/guardian or alone to learn the tricks of the comedy trade. Use exaggeration, repetition, expressive actions and the rule of three, work with funny words and sounds, and deliver comedy gold. Ages 4 and up.
Sun 13:00 Place of Cubs

Laura Gallacher: The Joy Journal Reignite your creativity, connect with nature, and awaken your spirit of play by joining your little ones in a joyful workshop. Laura will be showing you how to make natural play dough from simple kitchen ingredients, working with leaves, grasses, flowers and sticks to make nature paint brushes and creating her miraculous 5 minute soap.
Sat 16:30 Place of Cubs
Sun 14:30 Wildlings Workshops

Let's Make Art is an independent Bristol-based arts organisation. Passionate about providing high quality art activities for everyone, they are running colourful, fun and fantastic craft workshops. Expect mask-making, doodle tables, fabric painting and their very first vintage circus photo booth!
Fri – Sun 10:30 Wildlings Workshops

Wildlings Workshops

All workshops are free and drop-in. Queue outside the tent, admission on a first-come-first-served basis.

Friday

09:00-10:00 Messy Play (0-3s)
10:30-12:30 Let's Make Art: Animal Headdresses
13:00-14:00 Botanical Illustration
14:30-17:30 Festival Flag Sewing

Saturday

09:00-10:00 Messy Play (0-3s)
10:30-12:30 Let's Make Art: Circus Outfits
13:00-17:30 Circus Photo Booth

Sunday

09:00-10:00 Messy Play (0-3s)
10:30-12:30 Let's Make Art: Crafty Drop-in 13:00-14:00 Circus Poetry Workshop
14:30-16:30 Laura Gallacher: The Joy Journal

Mermaid Crowns Join costume designer Fiona Chivers and her team and delve into a treasure chest of foraged shells, pearls and sea glass to fashion your very own crown. Basic hand sewing required.
Sat 12:30, 13:45 Workshops Barn 1

Messy Play (0-3s) Join Let's Make Art for a craft hour for budding mini-Picassos. Unleash their creativity with paint sticks, Playdough and lots of sticker fun to make minibeasts, faces and party hats!
Fri – Sun 9:00 Wildlings Workshops

Murray Lachlan Young is one of the UK's foremost performance poets. His unique combination of poetry, stand-up, storytelling and panto make this a raucous, funny poignant and enlightening hour of merriment and mayhem.
Sat 14:15 Park Stage

Musical Storytales for Tots Music House for Children bring stories to life using sounds, songs, instruments, dancing, ribbons, puppets and mayhem! Each story twists and turns, and nurtures children's responses in movement, sound-making and rock 'n roll.
Fri – Sun 14:30 Place of Cubs

Outdoor Photography: Under 16s Learn to explore and see the world from all angles. Bring any digital camera – including a Smart Phone or Compact – and join Tommy Hatwell as he opens your eyes to the possibilities of photography.
Thurs 14:00, Fri – Sun 10:00 – 11:30 Great Outdoors, Meet at Workshop Barn

Paintball Tactical Target Practice Test your skill and speed on this non-contact firing range using state-of-the-art Paintball Markers. You will be put through your paces on this tactical range, picking off targets and entering tactical scenarios! Let's find your Inner John Wick! This workshop is drop in – no need to book in advance.
Fri – Sun 09:30 – 18:00 The Games Arena

Parkour Workshops Control Movement is a Cornwall-based Parkour/Freerunning group. Qualified coaches will be teaching vaults, jumps and balancing and other basic skills. If you have always wanted to give Parkour a go or just want to explore the world in a new way, then this is your chance!
Thurs 14:00, 16:00, Fri 10:00, 12:00, 14:00, 16:00 Parkour Course

RAFI+FRIENDS: Celebration of Difference is a workshop from Rafi+friends, an organisation that empowers and educates young people around the world. This story is about kindness, friendship and working together to achieve what might first seem impossible! Decorate African-style headdresses, dance and play musical instruments to a song by Jamaican artist, Koffee!
Fri – Sun 11:30 Place of Cubs

Robot Dancing Workshop Everyone has a robot dance living inside them! Pop on over and show us your inner C3PO, R2D2 or Peter Crouch...
Sat 13:00 Place of Cubs

Soft Play Music Bus will take you and your little ones on a musical journey to Old MacDonald's Farm to meet all your favourite animals. Sing along with their lovable puppets, play musical instruments, pop some popcorn... and more. Join in for some musical fun!
Fri – Sun 10:30, 13:30 Wildlings Wood, Softplay Tent

Soundart Radio These drop-in workshops will introduce you to sound recording and radio. The Soundart team will be dipping their hydrophones into the river; making up songs, stories and poems; asking random questions to random people and capturing audacious audio throughout the weekend. There will be things for all ages and every day they will podcast something new made by you.
Fri – Sun 10:00, 13:00, 16:00 Wildlings Wood

Sunnyside Up: Ukulele Workshop Tim and Harry have played many festivals as a band and run ukulele workshops with people of all ages and backgrounds across Cornwall and Devon. Come along, learn to strum, play easy-to-grasp chords and have a real blast with this gem of an instrument!
Sun 10:00 Place of Cubs

Tree-Climbing with Wilderness Play Matt and Joel have a wealth of experience in forestry and arboriculture, first aid and high rope access. They will be holding drop-in Tree Climbing sessions throughout the weekend – come and have a go!
Fri – Sun 10:00 – 16:00 Wildlings Wood

Mossy Crow

Mossy Crow is an ever-expanding universe of creatures of the wild imagination brought to life through stories, artworks and performance. It connects children with nature and reignites their imaginations. This year, they will be taking residence at Wildlings Wood, producing a show every day at 10:00 and 14:00 as well as hosting workshops including:

Creature Making at Mossy Hall
 Make your own wild creature using clay and other natural materials for an ever-expanding art installation.

The Mossy Games
 Join in interactive games like: The Squitch (Squirrel Witch) a version of grandmothers footsteps; the Royal Court Game, a dance and movement game where the audience are encouraged to move and act like their chosen creatures; The Trap, a cumulative building game for the audience to interact with all weekend. All sorts of ingenious building materials will be provided and the audience will be encouraged to find and add their own.

Shadow puppets
 A chance for the audience to create creatures of their own wild imagination and bring them to life in our shadow puppet theatre.

Workshops Sat from 10:00 – 12:00 and 14:00 – 16:00, Sun 10:00 Wildlings Wood

Don't forget to join them on Sunday at midday for the unforgettable Mossy Crow Parade.

Viking Tournament Games Join in with a range of Viking games such as Kubb (which originally used the heads of vanquished enemies!), blind-folded pillow fighting and fixed-pole jousting to work on your warrior skills. This workshop is drop in – no need to book in advance.
Fri – Sun 09:30 – 18:00 The Games Arena

Yarnbombing Every autumn the little town of Liskeard is yarnbombed with colourful knitting and crochet. Join 3 Bags Full, the mysterious group behind this, to transform the area outside the orangery over the weekend. Festival-goers of all ages are very welcome to join in with the woolly creativity, including making pom poms and dreamcatchers.
 Drop in all Weekend Orangery Entrance

MUSIC

Music to stay up late to, or get down to, plus opera, cabaret and more.

7” Heaven - 45rpm Whether culled from old jukeboxes or plundered from the charity shop bargain bin there’s something special about those little slabs of vinyl. Without a 12”, USB stick or CD in sight, expect everything from everywhere that’s got a beat running through it. And of course, the sound of scratchy vinyl in between.

Fri, Sat 18:00 Stargazy Rum Bar

The 45s are a supercharged soul, R’n’B and rock ‘n’ roll outfit straight-outta-Bristol. Their rhythm section is Jimmy Curry and Desmond Rogers, topped off by the SUPERLUNGS of the one and only Bobby Anderson.

Thurs 21:30 Black Cow Saloon

Sat 23:15 Ace of Clubs

Abigail Collins: Une Femme

Exposée combines acrobatics, hula hoops and a ridiculous ballet on pointe shoes made from traffic cones. This is street theatre that touches the heart, fires the brain and mercilessly tickles the funny bone.

Thurs 14:05, Fri 13:35, Sat 17:00 Outside Stage

Thurs 20:45, Fri 19:35, Sat 21:50 Ace of Clubs

Advance Base is the solo project of Chicago, IL singer-songwriter Owen Ashworth (formerly of Casiotone for the Painfully Alone). Using an arsenal of electric pianos, autoharps, loops, samples and drum machines, he builds minimalist nostalgia-obsessed tunes around conversational vocals.

Fri 18:30 Walled Garden

Alan Power is a UK based singer, songwriter and performer whose white suit, cowboy boots, Stetson and expression of discontent paint him as the perfect lowlife outlaw on the run. His irreverently titled debut album, Greatest Hits Vol.1 is out now.

Sat 20:00 Black Cow Saloon

Aldous Harding’s third studio album Designer, released in April, built on the sleeper success of 2017’s internationally lauded Party. From the bold strokes of opening track ‘Fixture Picture’, there is an overriding sense of an artist confident in her work, broadening her rich and timeless songwriting abilities.

Thurs 22:00 CBTR

Alfresco Disco throw the most imaginative and talked about parties in the UK. Drawing from a wealth of the finest rave experience and covering a broad musical spectrum, they never fail to set a party, club or festival stage into rapture.

Sat 01:00 – 05:00 Boogie Round

The Analogue Cabin is a monthly radio show that delves deep into the broad record collections of its presenters Electric George and Discophil. From jazz, soul, hip-hop, funk, boogie and disco, to Acid House, electronica and techno they will provide a perfectly judged selection for your delection.

Fri, Sat 14:00 Stargazy Rum Bar

Andy Burrows first came to fame as drummer and songwriter for Razorlight and has quietly become one of the most in-demand people in music. His latest collaboration is with bestselling author Matt Haig. Reasons To Stay Alive is a collection of songs loosely inspired by Haig’s much loved books, with words by Haig and music by Burrows.

Sat 13:30 The Church

The Andy Quick Band formed in 2016 in a living room in Devon and hit the ground running. Their live show has evolved into a fascinating mash up of wild blues, Hip Hop beats, retro funk and rock ‘n’ roll, with sprinklings of bhangra and reggae, wrapped around playful lyrics and enormous choruses.

Sun 21:30 Ace of Clubs

The Arcadia 78rpm Orchestra

play jazz, blues, rock ‘n’ roll, dance band, boogie-woogie, cha-cha-cha – and much more. They DJ on old-fashioned wind-up 78rpm players using clockwork technology from the 19th century and play records made from the 1930s to the late 1950s.

All Weekend CBTR and Walled Garden

The Art of Dance present pole dancing with a gymnastic twist. Their high-energy routines involve some gravity-defying displays. They are not strangers to the performance world and will delight you with their acts of strength and flexibility.

Fri 14:45, Sat 15:00, Sun 14:30 Outside Stage

audiobooks are David Wrench and Goldsmith’s fine art student Evangeline Ling. Spontaneous and playful yet fully focused, their stuttering, glitchy glam electronica plays out over strange storyscapes: the sharp neon ley-lines that run between the north Wales coast and the grubby heart of after hours London.

Fri 20:15 CBTR

Backbeat Soundsystem remind us that dub reggae is at the forefront of dance music culture. Combining lush harmonies, soaring melodies, a flawless horn section and dub-infused electronica they pull in influences from across the spectrum.

Thurs 18:00 Ace of Clubs

Sun 12:55 Outside Stage

Barbarella’s Bang Bang draw on diverse and multicultural influences, from South and East European Folk to punk rock. Known for their raucous gigs and fronted by the enigmatic Barbara Pugliese. they have become a festival and club night staple.

Sat 18:30 Black Cow Saloon

Beak> are Geoff Barrow, Billy Fuller & William Young. Formed in 2009 in Bristol, Beak> are known favourites of other bands and have been playing alongside Arcade Fire, Savages, Chris Cunningham and The Horrors.

Fri 22:00 CBTR

Beating Heart Sound System

splice Afro flavours with house, techno, soulful beats and bass music. Their sound stems from their exclusive access to the world’s largest collection of vintage African field recordings, housed at the International Library of African Music in South Africa.

Sat 02:30 The Boogie Round

Big Boss Man play a hip Heavy Hammond hybrid of pop, 6T’s R’n’B / Latin soul and funk. Previously they have: toured Spain 8 times, provided the sound track to a Mighty Boosh film and remixed a German 70s kids programme theme tune.

Sat 00:30 Ace of Clubs

Black Kat Boppers play hard boppin’, jump up, rockin’ blues dance music. They’ve regularly worked with Paul Simonon of the Clash and Damon Albarn of Blur/Gorillaz fame and were also invited on to the bill with Blur at Hyde Park.

Sat 23:00 Walled Garden

Black Friday are a high-energy folk and Celtic punk rock band from St Germans, Cornwall, playing a lively mix of original songs, traditional Irish jigs, reels, ballads, and cover versions. In 2016 they played over 150 gigs all over England and Europe.

Thurs 01:30 Ace of Clubs

Blue the Bear are breathing new life into the Rhythm and Blues of the 50s and 60s. With rich harmonies and three diverse lead vocalists they play the hits of Ray Charles, Elvis Presley, Fats Domino and many more, with a youthful exuberance.

Fri 23:15 Black Cow Saloon

Bodmin Town Band was formed in 1927. They have won numerous prizes at the West of England Bandsmen’s Festival and have held the Cornish Champions title on a number of occasions.

Sun 13:45 Outside Stage

The Bowie Lounge is an artistic response to the work of David Bowie in music, word, dance and art. Taking the late-60’s Beckenham ‘Arts Labs’ which Bowie was involved in as their inspiration, they perform Bowie songs combined with readings, poetry, dance, art and photography.

Fri 17:00 Ace of Clubs

Breakbeat Bandits feature musicians from across Devon and Somerset with a shared ambition: to reshape samba music and captivate audiences. Their repertoire of beloved dance songs, mixed with huge Brazilian samba rhythms makes them stand out as one of the most exciting live acts in the area.

Thurs 18:00, Sun 12:55 Ace of Clubs

Charlie Louise is a singer-songwriter from Cornwall combining acoustic pop vibes with country vocals. She has supported the likes of Wildwood Kin and Haunt The Woods and recorded her debut demo EP I’m Not like You at Abbey Road Studios in 2018.

Fri 12:20 Outside Stage

Charlie Miller and The Soul Agents

play original soul music and a selection of the very best classic soul and funk hits. This full live band oozes sweetness, grooves hard and makes you want to get up and dance all night.

Thurs 22:30 Ace of Clubs

Charlotte Church’s Late Night Pop Dungeon

gives the MK Ultra treatment to the greatest tunes that time forgot. Join her on a journey down the dark, dark stairs, to the bloody gallows of soft rock, through the oubliette of cheese, into the torture chamber of disco. Bring dancing shoes – the floor is on fire.

Fri 23:00 Park Stage

Coastal Belles are a close harmony singing group from North Cornwall, who have been singing together for five years. They perform well-loved songs from Folk to Modern, blending 3-part harmonies as well as singing with the ukulele and piano.

Fri 15:20 Outside Stage

The Comancheros are a 5-piece country outfit serving up an oldtime sound that references the likes of Jimmie Rodgers and Jerry Reed.

Sun 18:45 Black Cow Saloon

The Coral have sold over a million UK albums since their debut in 2001, including 2003’s chart-topping Magic and Medicine and last year’s Move Through the Dawn. One of the most consistent bands in the UK retro-rock scene, their sneakily good hooks, jangly guitars and frontman James Skelly’s vocals make for an iconic sound.

Sat 22:45 Park Stage

Crispin Hunt is a platinum selling songwriter, record producer and the formerlead singer of the Britpop band Longpigs and electro art group Mayonnaise, with Howie B. He will be hosting the Idler Academy’s end of term disco.

Sun 18:00 Idler Academy

Cut a Shine is a collective of musicians, dancers and callers who are out to get people dancing the old dances. Get ready for authentic rippin’ old time fiddle and banjo tunes and, most importantly, come ready to join in!

Sat 21:15 Walled Garden

Daddy Longlegs provide salvation through the spirit of roots and blues. While influenced by the likes of Captain Beefheart, Howlin’ Wolf and Dr. Feelgood, their sound personifies garage rock and punk with a contemporary raw twist. They have toured with Jon Spencer, The Sonics, and Nick Waterhouse.

Fri 21:30 Park Stage

Sat 00:15 Black Cow Saloon

DakhaBrakha is a world music quartet from Kiev, Ukraine. Accompanied by Indian, Arabic, African, Russian and Australian traditional instrumentation, the quartet’s astonishingly powerful and uncompromising vocal range creates a trans-national sound rooted in Ukrainian culture.

Sun 21:30 Park Stage

Damnation Alley – The Musical

is set in Plymouth’s Barbican in 1806 and features sailors, smugglers, doxies and drop-outs fighting for survival in a twisted and drunken tale of murder, passion and revenge. Written by David Podmore, songwriter from Mad Dog Mcreea and directed by James Peries (Bristol Old Vic), it features a full live band and a very special guest narrator.

Sun 17:30 Ace of Clubs

Dan Donovan is a composer and remixer who played keyboards for Big Audio Dynamite, and was a founding member of Dreadzone and the first live drum programmer for Sisters of Mercy. Alongside Paul Simonon he has DJed many successful Casbah Club nights and events for the likes of Prada, Stella McCartney and Calvin Klein.

Sat 01:00 Black Cow Saloon

Dana Immanuel & the Stolen Band are a banjo-whacking, guitar-shredding, fiddle-sawing, foot-stomping, whiskey-soaked, all-female assault on the senses. Their unique brand of musical badassery spans the blues, rock, Americana, indie, folk and country scenes.

Fri 20:30 Ace of Clubs

The Datura Roots Collective are renowned for their stage energy and crowd engagement. Inspired by Roots Reggae and Dub pioneers, Blues and Jazz sounds, hard-hitting HipHop and electronica they make a delirious cocktail of soulful vocals and irresistible grooves.

Fri 22:00 Ace of Clubs

Deerhart is a musical duo comprised of singer, actress and clown, Nancy Trotter Landry, and multi-instrumentalist Robert Pearson of Ardyn and Katy J Pearson bands. They perform and record delightful original music, inspired by love and landscape.

Fri 13:15 Walled Garden

Delgres are a power-trio who mix abrasive rock and blues. They recall the Tuaregs’ soul as much as John Lee Hooker’s, while carrying Louis Delgres’ secular message: his heroic fight against slavery in the Guadeloupe island. The music speaks to us through shivers, vibrating our bodies as well as our minds.

Sun 19:45 Park Stage

Derek Gripper painstakingly transcribed the complex compositions of Malian kora player Toumani Diabaté to play them on classical six-string guitar. The results mark a fusion of the written tradition of Western classical music and the oral tradition of West Africa. He has since performed with Diabaté and his Symmetric Orchestra at the Acoustik Festival in Mali.

Sun 16:45 Walled Garden

Disco Rococo fuse the brightest sounds from the 60’s to the 80’s creating a unique smoothie of concise, neatly packaged songs. Based in Redruth, they describe their blend of new wave, upbeat, indie pop - coupled with melancholic lyrics - as ‘SAD POP’.

Fri 14:00 Black Cow Saloon

Droogs are a three-piece band from Bristol comprising Joe Harding, Ben Fisher and Sam Taylor. They play violent and irreverent, bass-driven punk which draws inspiration from The Fat White Family, John Cooper Clarke and The Damned. Their first single Make You Laugh was released this summer.

Sun 23:00 The Black Cow Saloon

Earl Okin is unique. The UK’s leading male Jazz and Bossa Nova singer and longest serving member of the unforgiving London comedy circuit, he’s renowned for his legendary ‘vocal-trumpet’ solos and has performed alongside everyone from Paul McCartney to Dame Cleo Laine, Van Morrison to Benny Carter, Ralph McTell to Barney Kessel.

Sat 18:30 Walled Garden

Sun 14:00 Round Room

Ed Harcourt is an acclaimed Mercury-nominated musician who has toured and performed with the likes of REM, Wilco, Patti Smith and Nick Cave. His eighth studio album Beyond The End trades vocals and lyrics and for an emotionally loquacious group of piano-led instrumentals, as if sound-tracking an as yet invisible film.

Sat 15:00 The Church

Elmara are made up of Ellie, Maisy and Rachael, three 14-year-old girls who blend the classic trio of bass, guitar and drums with beautiful 3-part harmonies. Combining the best of British indie with dreamy West Coast pop they craft songs with stories to tell, and hooks that stay with you for days.

Thurs 14:45 Outside Stage

Listings

Flats and Sharps blur the lines between Folk Bluegrass, Country and Pop, and perform their own highly original songs alongside renditions of Bluegrass classics. This Cornish-based outfit have honed their skills in 350 live performances, charming and wowing audiences along the way.
Sun 21:30 Black Cow Saloon

Flying Mojito Bros are pan-American disco bandoleros riding the rodeowaves with an audiovisual cosmic hoedown: producer/musician Ben Chetwood & DJ/digger Jack Sellen's VJ show features on-the-fly remixing, edits, live instrumentation and trippy visuals.
Thurs 20:00 Stargazy Rum Bar

Gabe Gurnsey's debut album //Physical// is a 21st Century take on muscular electro, blending Balearic synth pop, EBM, militant funk, early Chicago house and minimal, Neptunes-referencing beats – it was released on Erol Alkan's Phantasy label in 2018.
Sat 23:15 CBTR

STARGAZY RUM BAR

Head to our party for the best made-to-order cocktails and live DJ sets running late into the night.

THURSDAY

20.00 - late FLYING MOJITO AMIGOS

FRIDAY

14:00 - 16:00 ANALOGUE CABIN
16:00 - 18:00 KIDS SILENT DISCO
18:00 - 20:00 7" HEAVEN - 45RPM
20:00 - 21:30 HOTEL BISMARCK
21:30 - 23:00 STEPHEN BASS (MOSHI MOSHI)
23:00 - 01:00 AMATEURISM
01:00 - 03:00 PETE FOWLER

SATURDAY

14:00 - 20:00 (AS PER ABOVE)
20:00 - 21:30 WILD FANTASY
21:30 - 23:00 ANALOGUE CABIN
23:00 - 01:00 TBC

SUNDAY

14:00 - 20:00 DROP THE PRESSURE
20:00 - 21:30 TBC
21:30 - 23:00 HOT BUTTERED SOUL
23:00 - 01:00 MONGOLIAN DISCO SHOW
01:00 - 03:00 KING LOUIS & DANCE ARMSTRONG

Garaghty and Thom cut their teeth on the hallowed cobbles of Covent Garden and have performed at festivals and cabarets around the world, including at Edinburgh festival and Glastonbury. They are co-creators of Slightly Fat Features, a comedy troupe who create variety shows for the 21st century.
Sat 13:45, Sun 15:45 Outside Stage
Sat 19:45 Ace of Clubs

Global Harmony are a vibrant acapella choir based in South Devon led by Roz Walker. They sing an international repertoire of Gospels, African songs, Scandinavian yoiks and some home-grown pop favourites. With percussion and dancing they'll take you on a journey of songs and sounds.
Fri – Sat 13:00 Outside Stage

Goonzian Quartet take their name from the Goonzian downs in Cornwall. With Paul Bullock on drums, Adam Taylor on upright bass, David Jaycock on guitar, Jacob Kodiceck on piano and Ed Hart on trumpet they play arrangements of standards from the 50s and 60s with an emphasis on improvisation.
Sun 12:00 Outside Stage

Grizzly and the Grasshoppers play Roots and Blues at its foot-stomping best with a touch of Folk and a hint of Traditional Blues. Grizzly's gritty vocals and his performance on lap slide guitar are a particular crowd pleaser.
Sun 20:00 Black Cow Saloon

Half Kut are the best-worst band in the world. A surf/punk outfit from Porthleven, Cornwall, they specialise in fast and loud music played very badly. Expect some original songs, wicked humour and general tomfoolery... and plenty of rock 'n' roll.
Thurs 19:00 Ace of Clubs

Heavenly Jukebox is the DJ arm of Heavenly Recordings and has played records at festivals, clubs, gigs and parties since 1990. They will be ably augmented by Stephen "Spoonful" Parker, Martin Nesbitt, James Endeacott and others. They're spinning in the Caught by the River Bar every night.
Thurs 23:00, Sun 21:00 CBTR

Hedluv + Passman are Cornwall's premier Casio keyboard-wielding, golden codpiece-wearing rap duo. "The most fantastic rap band that's ever been from Cornwall" according to Rhys Darby (Murray Hewitt from Flight of the Conchords)
Thurs 20:00, Sun 16:30 Black Cow Saloon

Henge come in the name of rave. They bring you the gift of cosmic dross – a kind of music new to your world. There are no earth words to describe these sounds, but you will learn how to love and dance again. This is your future. Put down the weapons. Unite. And colonise space.
Sat 21:00 Park Stage

Hollow Hand is the psych-folk project of Max Kinghorn-Mills. Their latest album Star Chamber, is an entirely DIY project full of homespun British pop melodies, and was recorded in a home-made studio at the bottom of a leafy garden with the doors wide open.
Sat 13:15 Walled Garden

Horses On The Beach are a 6 piece alt-funk band from Falmouth who have gained a following across Cornwall for their energetic and groove-filled live shows. Inspired by bands like The Cat Empire and Deluxe, their sound draws inspiration from elements of funk, sou, jazz, and Latin music.
Sun 20:15 Ace of Clubs

Indian Man brings you the finest of Indian electronica and a unique taste of his musical inspirations from all around the world. Spinning anything from Bhangra classics to garage filled grooves, his unique combination of mother-tongue twisting lyrics, traditional Punjabi sounds and hip hop drops prove an irresistible combination.
Fri 23:00, Sat 22:15 Ace of Clubs

International Teachers of Pop have performed a BBC 6Music session with Marc Riley and supported both Jarvis Cocker and Roisin Murphy. With one eye on pop music and the other on something more artful, playful and slightly wicked, their influences include Grace Slick, Donna Summer, The Pet Shop Boys, Kraftwerk... and All Saints.
Sat 20:00 CBTR

James & Black Bruce James and Bella Black joined musical forces in Austin, Texas in 2011 and have been on a mission spreading the word of "Guerrilla Soul" ever since. Their musical roots spring from the tradition of the Southern Soul from Texas, New Orleans and Memphis.
Sun 19:00 Ace of Clubs

James Endeacott bought a copy of Space Oddity by David Bowie when he was 10 years old. He has worked in and with music ever since, as a performer, band manager, A&R man and now as owner of the record label 1965 Records.
Fri 17:30 CBTR

Java Five have been performing in the UK and France for the last ten years. An acappella singing group, they cover a variety of jazz, rock and pop classics from the 1920's to current hits. They are appearing at the festival for the fifth time in 2019.
Sat 12:00 Outside Stage

Jim Hammond plays a wide variety of styles and genres including folk and country, RnB, rockabilly, country blues, surf and rock 'n' roll. Jim is proficient in playing the piano, guitar and squeezebox. He has been "Pro" since 2007.
Sat 23:00 Black Cow Saloon

The Joint Chiefs are a modern acoustic country band, based in Devon. Playing classic and original songs with a swinging twist, they sing in 3-part harmonies and make sweet, sweet music.
Sat 17:35 Ace of Clubs
Sun 17:30 Black Cow Saloon

Jon Savage has written sleevenotes for Wire, St. Etienne and the Pet Shop Boys, among others, and his compilations include: Meridian 1970 (Heavenly/EMI 2005); and Dreams Come True: Classic Electro 1982-87 (Domino 2008). He'll be DJing on Saturday evening at the Caught by the River bar.
Sat 19:00 CBTR Bar

Junior Bill are a Cardiff based band who play astute observational songs. Their sound bears traces of the roots of British rock n roll, refracted through Two-tone and Stiff Records via the dub of Lee Scratch Perry and the global outlook of Manu Chao.
Fri 21:45 Black Cow Saloon

Kids' Silent Disco Inspired by the anarchic elephant café of old, this is a silent disco in the glade run by kids. All ages welcome (and parents too!)
Fri, Sat 16:00 – 18:00 Stargazy Rum Bar

Khartoum are a five piece rock 'n' roll band based in London who can be found playing at their monthly residency at Laylow in Notting Hill. Fusing blues and psychedelia they are currently touring in support of their debut self-titled EP, recording new material and building a loyal fanbase.
Fri 18:00 Black Cow Saloon

Kindred emerged from the Falmouth garage rock scene dubbed "Kernow Wave". Known in Falmouth as a DJ of repute, Stanley Duke pulled together many of the musical ideas that had been influential in his life to create this new project.
Thurs 20:00 Ace of Clubs

Leigh Delamere & the Gordanos offer an upright-piano mangling barrelhouse banjo homage to the greats of RnB, garage rock, boogie-woogie and ragtime. These multi-instrumental masters of accordion, tompbox, Maccaferri guitar, violin, cowbell, bass, washboard, and hollerin' are seasoned veterans of the stage.
Sun 16:15 Ace of Clubs

Lily Allen released her 4th LP, No Shame, to great critical acclaim and a Mercury Prize nomination in June last year. Don't miss out on her DJ set at the Boogie Round as Friday night turns into Saturday morning...
Fri 01:00 The Boogie Round

The Loose Salute deliver boy/girl vocals that combine joyful celebrations of friendships and relationships with melancholic ballads, sunshine and showers! Think Fairport folky, Bolan stomp, Beach Boy joy and Crosby, Stills, Nash and fun. This is West Coast bubblegum pop for grown ups.
Fri 19:45 Walled Garden

Louis Alberry is a guitarist, mandola player and songwriter whose songs and instrumentals weave intricate journeys through diverse musical landscapes. Fed as much by West African, Indian and jazz music as by his fingerstyle guitar predecessors, his music is by turns lilting, hypnotic or bursting with energy.
Thurs 13:30 Outside Stage

Louis Slipperz, long time member of UK HipHop pioneers TaskForce spins an eclectic mish-mash of tasty tidbits from across the globe. Louis' musical journey has taken him on various global escapades. Expect to get sweaty on the dance floor with some curveballs aimed right at your ears.
Fri 22:00 The Boogie Round

Ma Bessie, The Musical Bessie Smith (1894 –1937) was the greatest and most popular female blues singer of the 1920s and 1930s. Ma Bessie (Julia Titus) and her blues troupe perform to a narrated show, featuring music from the era and showcasing many of Bessie's songs.
Sat 15:35 Ace of Clubs

Madalitso are two guys from a village in Malawi bringing dancefloors to life. They will make you clap, dance, smile, and rethink everything you thought you knew about African sound and instrumentation. First discovered outside a shopping centre in Lilongwe in 2009, the duo have since toured Europe.
Sat, 19:45 Park Stage

Mad Dog Mcrea blend folk rock, pop, gypsy jazz, bluegrass and 'shake your ass' music. From self-penned songs of adventure, drinking, love and life, to traditional songs of gypsies, fairies, legless pirates and black flies, Mad Dog never fail to capture their audience with their infectious songs.
Fri 23:30 Walled Garden

Mark Williamson aka Spaceship Mark is a musician and sound artist based in West Yorkshire working with field recordings, portable synthesizers and found sounds. Think Kevin Shields lending Tangerine Dream a hand on the soundtrack to a late night BBC2 Open University geology broadcast.
Sun 15:45 CBTR

Marry Waterson & Emily Barker met by chance on a songwriting retreat and later reconvened to continue their writing partnership. The critically acclaimed folk and roots artists' new album A Window to Other Ways provides a fly-on-the-wall observation of the contradictions and disconnections of modern life.
Sat 20:00 Walled Garden

Men Are Singing are an alternative Falmouth-based male voice choir. They eschew the traditional repertoire of songs about fishermen, miners and God (or Andrew Lloyd Webber covers), in favour of some barnstorming versions of tracks by the likes of Talking Heads, Tom Waits, Bjork and Ivor Cutler.
Sat 12:00 The Church
Sat 20:30 Bowling Green

Mik Artistik's Ego Trip perform a madcap mix of music and comedy. As Mik spouts lyrics and throws straws, partner in crime Jonny Flockton provides a layer of rock, soul, and punk guitar sprinkled over a serving of drum machine and bass. They are one of the most interesting, unpredictable and exciting acts around.
Fri 15:00 Ace of Clubs
Sat 21:30 Walled Garden
Sun 18:15 Park Stage

Mike Shaw helped run a mobile disco in the 70s before playing on Bristol's first ever Pirate Radio station BAD. During the 90's he held a residency at Lakota and currently plays alongside Soulworks at the Plough Inn, one of Bristol's best kept secrets.
Fri 20:30 The Boogie Round

Modern Nature is the new project of Jack Cooper, ex of Ultimate Painting / Mazes and Will Young of BEAK>, featuring Aaron Neveu of Woods and Sunwatchers and Jeff Tobias on saxophone. 'The band is so new, it's hard to say who's in and who isn't', says Cooper.
Fri 18:45 CBTR

The Mongolian Disco Show's history remains shrouded in mystery. Some say they met playing in the yak powered discos of the Mongolian steppes whilst others suggest more cosmic origins. What we know for sure is that these two vinylsmiths never knowingly leaving a stone unturned. .
Sun 23:00 Stargazy Rum Bar

Morrissey & Marshall had a breakthrough year in 2018. The bands new album, We Rise Again Acoustically, is a light and shade production of hard-hitting political brutality and raw emotions, perfectly reflecting the current political and personal landscape. It's all delivered with a combination of sublime harmonies and musicianship.
Sat 20:45 Ace of Clubs

Nancy Trotter Landry: Ephedrine Nancy has worked with Giffords Circus, as well as in music, film, comedy and painting. Here, as Ephedrine she tickles, caresses, jabs the ribs and plays with your heartstrings. It's a provocative encounter with an experienced clown and theatre anarchist.
Sat 18:45 Outside Stage

The Native are an Indie Alternative band from Devon. Having formed just over a year ago they have already released a debut EP 'Fall Down' which has just reached over 1 million streams. Their sound has been likened to Fleetwood Mac, Amber Run, James Bay, The War on Drugs and many others.
Fri 15:45 Ace of Clubs

The Oggymen are a group of friends from Falmouth who delight in singing traditional and contemporary Cornish songs in three/four-part harmony. These songs are part of our culture; a bridge to both the past and the future.
Sat 14:20, Sun 15:10 Outside Stage

BOOGIE ROUND

The Boogie Round is back for an eighth consecutive year, and is running from dusk on Thursday through to sunrise on Monday morning. Expect to find yourself dancing at 5am to an eclectic mix of party gold – from the classic sounds of funk, reggae and soul through to house, jungle, hip hop and of course plenty of disco and boogie.

THURSDAY

18:30 - 20:30 MISS MITTEN
20:30 - 22:30 STEVE RICE
22:30 - 00:00 ROSE HILL
00:30 - 02:00 PETER FOWLER & CITIZEN HELENE
02:00 - 04:00 RUBBER LUMLEY
04:00 - 05:00 MAX HALSTEAD (THE DISCO TECHNICIANS)

FRIDAY

18:00 - 20:00 JEFF & DANNY BARRETT
20:00 - 22:00 MIKE SHAW & SOULWORKS
22:00 - 23:30 DJ LOUIS SLIPPERZ
23:30 - 01:00 PETE ON THE CORNER
01:00 - 02:30 LILY ALLEN
02:30 - 04:30 BEARTING HEART
04:30 - 05:00 PURE RESPECT

SATURDAY

18:00 - 20:30 HOLD TIGHT RECORDS REGGAE SOUNDSYSTEM
20:30 - 22:00 ED WORD/BOOGIE NIGHTS
22:00 - 23:30 PAPA MOOMIN
23:30 - 01:00 SIMON MORRELL
01:00 - 02:30 ALFRESCO DISCO & CHRISTOPHE

SUNDAY

18:00 - 19:30 WILL SKILLZ
19:30 - 20:30 MISS MITTEN
20:30 - 21:30 SALLAD EGG
21:30 - 23:00 ORVILLE WRIGHT & GAOL INDUSTRIES
23:00 - 00:30 REMY'S 2-STEP SUNDAY SURGERY
00:30 - 01:30 DJ POLO
01:30 - 03:00 BIG GAME
03:00 - 05:00 BOOGIE ROUND ALL STARS CLOSING PARTY

The Orielles are sisters Sidonie B and Esmé Dee Hand Halford and their best friend Henry Carlyle Wade. Their 2018 debut album Silver Dollar Moment was hailed as intelligent feel-good indie. Joined by Alex Stephens on keyboards, their latest tracks demonstrate the ease with which they take on new sounds and make them their own.

Fri 23:00 CBTR Bar (DJ set)

Sun 20:00 CBTR

Pale Blue Eyes are a compelling new alt-pop three-piece from Devon, with joyous Krautrock rhythms suggestive of a young English Neu! and guitar like Echo And The Bunnymen's Will Sergeant at his most wired and raga-frenetic. Elsewhere, at their more prettily bittersweet, they recall The Cure circa 1980.

Sun 19:45 Walled Garden

Papa Moomin aka Chrissy Hotpants from electro powerhouse BIG IN LIGHTS, throws it down on dancefloors of Bristol and beyond. Spinning a unique, uncompromising mix of genres, Papa Moomin is the King, Queen, Prince & Princess of the party set.

Sat 22:00 Boogie Round

Pearl, TN are a mountain pop band that play 'Bittersweet songs of love and regret... pure as a mountain stream' (Rock 'n' Reel Magazine). Influenced by names such as Townes Van Zandt, Gillian Welch and Dave Rawlings, they bring an english flavour to what is otherwise pure Americana.

Thurs 19:00, Fri 16:00 Black Cow Saloon

Pete On the Corner is inspired by the iconic Loft parties and his selections climb through eclectic grooves, Afro disco and jazzy House. During 2018 Pete has played at clubs and festivals across Europe and Africa and won 'Label of the Year 2017/2018' at Gilles Peterson's Worldwide Awards.

Fri 23:30 Boogie Round

Pip Blom's sound is incredibly seductive. Her endlessly listenable vocal range and catchy songs deliver jerky, angsty pop with an appealingly angelic slant. Her voice is that of someone who's always suppressing a smile – there's sunny energy trapped inside her like a jar of glow worms. It's infectious stuff.

Thurs 20:30 CBTR

Radio Rio were inspired by times spent in Brazil soaking up the music in the bars of Ipanema. Back in Cornwall they evolved into Radio Rio. They draw inspiration from the finest Brazilian music featuring flute, accordion, guitar, upright bass, Latin percussion and vocals.

Sun 13:15 Walled Garden

Raleigh Rye is a country blues guitar and honky tonk piano player, singer and native of Southern California, who has spent time living and performing in Nashville, New Orleans and LA. Raleigh writes songs in the traditional styles of American rock 'n' roll and country blues.

Fri 14:00 Black Cow Saloon

The Red River Hogs provide a fresh take on R&B, combining Deep South influences with a modern 21st Century vibe. Regularly in demand to support the likes of Dr Feelgood and the Norman Beaker Blues band their hard-driving blues rock and soulful storytelling gets everyone on their feet.

Sat 18:45 Ace of Clubs

The Rezner are an alternative/indie-rock 4-piece from Truro who have built a reputation for their energetic gigs, winning plaudits for their explosive riffs, groovy basslines and punchy percussion. Their debut single Micky was released in March.

Thurs 21:20 Ace of Clubs

Robyn Hitchcock is one of England's most enduring contemporary singer-songwriters. A surrealist poet, cult artist and musician's musician, Hitchcock is beloved of everyone from Led Zeppelin to REM. His most recent album marks his 21st release as a solo artist. Hitchcock describes it as an "ecstatic work of negativity with nary a dreary groove."

Sat 19:00 The Church

The Roves hail from the suburbs of North London and have put out two LPs in just under a year. They'll be playing guitar-fuelled British rock 'n' roll with influences from all art forms.

Fri 19:15 Black Cow Saloon

Ruinarte is an artist who creates music infused with pastoral Devonian origins, remarkable European journeys, and an acquaintance with psychology. She weaves an electronic sound that can be joyful and uplifting, or vivid and profound.

Thurs 17:15 Outside Stage

The Sierra Band are a gritty soul outfit obsessed with the Southern U.S music scene. Drawing heavily on the sound of Muscle Shoals, Memphis and Louisiana, the band perform songs by Dr John, Etta James, Bobby Gentry and The Stones.

Fri 00:30 Ace of Clubs

Simon Morrell is a house music all-rounder. Billed alongside some of the biggest names in the business, he has played all over the shop, from Fabric and Ministry of Sound to Ibiza's Space, and Pacha as well as festival appearances at Love International & Dimensions.

Sat 23:30 Boogie Round

Simon Spoons is an internationally renowned spoon player. Anything that's 'got a good beat' is his bag, from 'Hold That Tiger' to 'Catch the Pigeon': he'll ladle the icing on the musical cake and guarantee to leave you hungry for another spoonful...

Fri 14:20, Sat 12:30 Outside Stage

Sleaze play post punk glam rock and get very sweaty. People loose their shit when they kick off and everyone comes back for more. Bring some dosh to buy a filthy t shirt off them. Expect the best music with the dirtiest lyrics.

Fri 00:30 Black Cow Saloon

Snak Dracula are a psychedelic 24 hour Garage-Glam band strutting out of Camberwell Green sounding like Marc Bolan on crack, howling electric funk earworms for the live and undead.

Sun 00:00 Black Cow Saloon

Stealing Sheep's new album Big Wows is heavier, harder and weirder than their previous work. Bold neon pop songs with rave percussion, steelpans, dreamy segues and breathy experiments are all held together by Emily Lansley's bass guitar, Luciana Mercer's drum kit, Rebecca Hawley's synths, and the trio's swooning steely vocal harmonies.

Sat 21:30 CBTR

Stephen 'Spoonful' Parker plays pastoral music and English Rock 'n' Roll of all persuasions. Expect anything from Bobbie Gentry to a bootleg tape of Kevin Rowland reciting 1981 train times for Arundel and Goring-by-Sea.

Sat 16:00 CBTR Bar

Steve Rice owns and runs Downbeat Melody sound system. He has been spinning his 45's for millions of years encompassing funk, reggae, soul, disco and jazz and is bringing the party to the people.

Thurs 20:30 The Boogie Round

The Trees consists of Becca Langsford, Alex Hart, Martha Nash and Elani Evangelou. They give new meaning to the term "girl band", fusing intense vocals with rootsy strings, beats and buckets of passion.

Fri 18:30 Ace of Clubs

Tiny Ruins released their hotly anticipated album Olympic Girls in February. Building on the minimalism and mesmerising songwriting of earlier releases, it comprises a taut and agile quiver of songs, dancing with explorative instrumentation and a pop sensibility that springs with life.

Thurs 19:00 CBTR

Tropical Pressure are DJs Bobby soul and Countryman, founders of the Tropical Pressure Festival that celebrates these cultures through music, dance and food. Collectors of music since childhood days they love to bring obscure gems to the dance.

Sun 14:00 Stargazy Rum Bar

Trevor Moss & Hannah-Lou met as teenagers at Goldsmiths College and soon became influential figures in the Brit-Folk revival, opening for the likes of Jools Holland, Beth Orton and Tori Amos. Their fifth album Fair Lady London, recorded on a 4-track cassette recorder, was released in 2018.

Thurs 17:30 CBTR

Vic Godard & the Subway Sect

formed in 1976 to play the seminal 100 Club Punk festival with the Sex Pistols. They appeared on the UK White Riot Tour 1977 and toured with Buzzcocks. In 2007 Godard recorded the songs written for his never-completed debut LP and released them as 1978 Now.

Sat 21:30 Black Cow Saloon

The Viewers are a five-piece whose influences stem from the 60s and early 70s. Their jangly guitars, vocal melodies, and driving rhythms provide echoes of that golden age, fused with sounds from today and strong 'MOD' overtones.

Sun 00:15 Ace of Clubs

Vince Lee & the Big Combo

have become almost legendary around Devon and Cornwall. Since forming in 1996 they have gone through several line-up changes but have always gathered behind Vince's considerable talents as an authentic, virtuoso blues guitarist and singer.

Thurs 00:00, Sun 23:00 Ace of Clubs

Sun 15:00 Black Cow Saloon

Waiting for Smith is a one-man band. It would have been a two-man band, but Smith (the drummer) never showed up. What's left is singer/songwriter Harry Lloyd, a man whose warm, catchy, poignant songs show influences ranging from Leonard Cohen to Billy Joel, Mozart and Mos Def.

Sun 18:30 Walled Garden

Wildwood Kin are a family trio whose sound is characterised by extraordinary harmonies. Guitarist Emillie Key, her bouzouki/ keyboard-playing sister Beth and their drummer cousin Meghann Loney, released their latest album in June and they have recently topped 13 million streams on Spotify.

Sat 17:00 The Church

Will Burns and Hannah Peel fuse poetry and music to channel the minute shifts in the air and atmosphere of a place. The words and sounds on new album Chalk Hill Blue seem to emerge from subliminal processes of call and answer; a fertile blurring of inspiration and intention evoking the abstracted chalk landscape of southern England.

Sun 14:15 CBTR

William the Conqueror hail from Cornwall and have picked up praise from all quarters since their 2017 debut album, Proud Disturber of the Peace. Channelling classic blues and roots through a grunge/indie filter they have shared stages with the likes of Van Morrison and Richard Thompson.

Fri 20:30 Black Cow Saloon

Working Men's Club deploy the start-stop sound of Talking Heads, Gang of Four and Television, and fuse 70s post-punk with a stomp of positivity. Vocalist Syd's words jab through Strokes-style guitar lines with Mark E Smith drawl...it's the feeling of a Saturday hanging out with friends.

Sun 18:30 CBTR

Wurlitza are a five-piece band from Cornwall who have been performing live film soundtracks since 2006. This year they accompany a selection of short films including classics from Buster Keaton and Fatty Arbuckle, a poignant depiction of a 1930s Cornish harvest and the first ever insect animation by the Russian director Ladislav Starevic.

Thurs 21:00 Bowling Green

BLACK COW SALOON

Come down to Port Eliot's own spit and sawdust honky tonk bar, serving up finest Black Cow Pure Milk Vodka cocktails, reviving beers and ciders with live music to keep you dancin' till the early hours.

THURSDAY

19:00 Pearl, TN
20:00 Hedluv and Passman
21:30 The 45s
23:00 DJ Scratchin Sachin

FRIDAY

14:00 Disco Rococo
15:00 George Elliot
16:00 Pearl, TN
17:00 Graceland
18:00 Khartoum
19:15 The Roves
20:30 William the Conqueror
21:45 Junior Bill
23:15 Blue the Bear
00:30 Sleaze
01:30 DJ Fred B
03:00 DJ Count Cassavubu

SATURDAY

14:00 Raleigh Rye
15:00 Rudy Blu
16:00 The Golden Dregs
17:15 The Dead Wait
18:30 Barbarella's Bang Bang
20:00 Alan Power
21:30 Vic Godard and the Subway Sect
23:00 Jim Hammond
00:15 Daddy Long Legs
01:00 Dan Donovan DJ Set
03:00 DJ Poppy Lloyd

SUNDAY

14:00 Ed Hopwood
15:00 Vince Lee Combo
16:30 Hedluv and Passman
17:30 The Joint Chiefs
18:45 The Black Cow Saloon All -Stars
20:00 Grizzly & the Grasshoppers
21:30 Flats & Sharps
23:00 The Droogs
00:00 Snak Dracula
01:00 DJ Nat

Fashion Foundation

Our home for fashion and art in the Orangery. Talks, happenings, free workshops and more.

Alex Box's experimental beauty looks examine the correlation between art, science, nature and the magical and have been featured in the likes of Vogue and i-D, while celebrity clients have included Lady Gaga, Kate Moss and Courtney Love. Join her free-form makeup workshop where grown-ups let the children make them up using glitter, paint and colour.
Sun 13:45 Orangery

Adam and Alistair Waterfield are fourth and fifth-generation George Cox flag-bearers. They will be talking to Paul Gorman about iconic footwear and the styles which have bewitched everyone from Sid Vicious to Comme des Garçons.
Sun 10:00 Orangery

Alice Temperley MBE founded her label Temperley London in 2000, a year after graduating from the Royal College of Art. She pioneers artisan techniques and intricate hand-worked embellishment. Alice will be telling the Temperley story using her books, True British and English Myths and Legends.
Fri 10:00 Orangery

Caroline Catz is an actress working in theatre, TV, film and radio, best known for her leading roles in Doc Martin and DCI Banks. She has also made documentaries on the Tapestry Music Festival, Jesse Hector and The Hammersmith Gorillas and the ambient music pioneer Delia Derbyshire. She'll be talking to glam rock legend, Dave Hill.
Sat 11:15 Orangery

Cathy Kasterine is a brand consultant and stylist and has worked for Miu Miu, Armani and Karen Millen. She was Fashion Director at Large at Harper's Bazaar, and contributing fashion editor of Porter and has styled the likes of Julianne Moore and David Beckham. She will be talking to Alice Temperley.
Fri 10:00 Orangery

Culture Device is a catalyst for artistic excellence. They choreograph, produce and promote social-cultural events across the UK and overseas. Established in 2010, they have delivered over 15 projects with exceptional artists with Down's Syndrome, reaching over 3.5 million people. They will be in conversation with Jess Hynes.
Sat 17:00 Orangery

Dave Hill taught himself to play guitar as a teenager and in 1966 formed the legendary band Slade. After their break-up, Dave eventually re-formed the band and they still regularly tour the world. He'll be talking to Glam superfan Caroline Catz about Slade style, spraypaint and stack heels, the space-age shoulderpads, Top of the Pops and that haircut...
Sat 11:15 Orangery

Dennis Nothdruff has been an assistant to by iconic British designer Zandra Rhodes and has produced numerous important fashion exhibitions. He is a curator at the Fashion and Textile Museum, the cutting edge centre for contemporary fashion and textiles in London founded by Zandra Rhodes.
Sat 12:30 Orangery

Dominic Lutyens is co-author of books on 70s Style & Design, Celia Birtwell, and Mid-Century Collectibles. He will be talking with Ops&Ops about the enduring influence of 1960s mod and pop culture, and with Pearl Lowe about faded glamour.
Fri 16:45, Sat 13:45 Orangery

Dominic Myatt explores the space between sexual fantasy and reality. He has previously collaborated with Vivienne Westwood and Selfridges among others and his most recent book (no kissing) is held in the Tate collection. He will run a workshop drawing from models styled by Marta Jacobowski using found and natural objects. Suitable for all ages.
Fri 10:15 Magick

Drag Syndrome use the power of drag to promote radical acceptance for those with learning disabilities. Comprised of 10 performers from across the UK, the project gives artists with Down's syndrome the opportunity to experiment with costumes, makeup and music, and perform on stage for global audiences.
Fri 18:15 Orangery

Energetic Drawing with Lou Gardiner Join in with this dynamic and wonderfully mad session of high energy drawing to dance and electronic music. Explore how energy, feeling and passion can change the way you express yourself, how you can enhance your mark making with authenticity.
Fri 17:15 Magick Workshop

Fashion & Textile Museum Workshop: Brooches & Keyrings Choose from a range of felt, buttons, ribbons and sequins, and the Museum team will help you create a simple and beautiful festival brooch or keyring. Suitable for all skills levels. Under 12s must be accompanied by an adult. All materials and equipment are supplied.
Fri 10:00 Magpie Workshop

Fashion & Textile Museum Workshop: Zandra Rhodes Peg Doll Join the team from the Museum and make your very own Zandra Rhodes peg doll using a range of materials. Fun, fast and relaxed, no skills are necessary. Under 12s must be accompanied by an adult. All materials and equipment are supplied.
Sat 10:00 Magpie Workshop

extinction rebellion

After eleven days of non-violent civil disobedience that saw police dancing in the streets alongside thousands of people calling for action on climate change, Extinction Rebellion's next stop is the Fashion Foundation. Author and activist, Tamsin Omond, whose speech mobilised the masses in April, will set the agenda by providing us with the latest scientific facts on the ecological crisis and asking us to respond to these truths. Sara Arnold, sustainable fashion activist, will offer us a realistic and brilliant way to take direct action. Tamsin and Sara will be talking to journalist Emily Sheffield.

Fri 12:30 Orangery

Extinction Rebellion Block Printing Workshop Disrupt and transform, using your hands to upcycle, to mend, to improve, to beautify, when the world tells you that new and more is the only way forward. Print over logos, print upside down, wear the message on your body and out on the streets. Please bring along items of clothing to print onto.

Fri 13:30 Magick

George Cox is the benchmark shoe brand for 21st Century style rebels, providing an indispensable element in the look of subcultures from Teds, Rockers and Punks to Retro-Futurists. To mark the 70th anniversary of Cox's very first pair of creepers, Paul Gorman will be in discussion with Adam and Alistair Waterfield. There will also be a special catwalk event showcasing his revolutionary styles.
Sun 10:00 Orangery

The Girls Agency is run by two sisters from London who have been working in modelling and styling since their early teens. It represents people found through street scouting, online and through friends and family, and includes artists, pro-skateboarders, musicians, students and more. They will be hosting the Port Eliot's Next Top Model event.
Fri 12:00 Magick

Jeremy Deller is an English conceptual, video and installation artist. He won the Turner Prize in 2004, and represented the UK at the Venice Biennale in 2013. He is known for his Battle of Orgreave (2001), a reenactment of the infamous battle during the miners' strike in 1984, and for 2016's We're Here Because We're Here, commemorating the 100th anniversary of the 1st day of the Somme. He will be talking to Miranda Sawyer.
Sun 11:15 Orangery

Jessica Hynes is a Bafta award-winning actress and writer. In 2017 she directed her first feature film, The Fight, produced by Noel Clarke and Jason Maza. She will talk to Culture Device about a cultural space for artists with Down's Syndrome, the Radical Beauty Project and how Drag Syndrome is taking festivals by storm.
Sat 17:00 Orangery

Kaffe Fassett is a leading textiles designer and practitioner of contemporary crafts. He has dedicated the last 50 years to the world of Knitting, Needlepoint and Patchwork. A Californian by birth, he began by creating knitwear designs for Bill Gibb and Missoni, and in 1988 he became the first living textile artist to have a one-man show at the V&A.
Sat 10:00 Orangery

Karen Binns is a New Yorker who has worked in the fashion industry for over 20 years. A muse to legendary artist Jean Michel Basquiat, she created the first moving warehouse parties called 'Soulboys'. As Creative Director for Tori Amos, she art directed and styled all of Amos's videos and shows. She will be talking to Tamara Cincik about Basquiat.
Fri 13:45 Orangery

Kim Brown started her professional make-up career in the film industry. Her work has appeared in publications such as Vogue and I-D and she has collaborated with acclaimed designers and celebrities such as Cate Blanchett and Rosamund Pike. Kim and her team will be providing makeup for Preen's fashion show, finishing with an incredible runway lineup.
Sat 15:30 Orangery

Let it Gibbon is the UK's largest archive of original 1970's T-shirt transfers. Bring your own T or customise one of theirs (a small number are available to buy). Grab the scissors, start cutting, and create your own design. Join them on the catwalk after the workshop to show your work. Workshop suitable for all, under 12s must be accompanied by an adult.
Sat 17:00 Magpie Workshop

Lou Gardiner talks us through the inspirations behind and techniques of her Cape of Empowerment. Commissioned by Pukka Teas, the cape celebrates women's creativity in a piece of breathtaking wearable art which draws on the need for a balance of power in society. Explore how energy, feeling and passion can bring authenticity to mark making.
Sun 15:00 Orangery

Mandi Lennard is Founder of creative consultancy Mandi's Basement and a Global Ambassador for Graduate Fashion Week. She sits on several fashion juries, and gives regular talks on for institutions including: V&A, Royal College of Art and Central Saint Martins. She'll be in conversation with Marta Jacobowski and Sadie Williams.
Fri 15:15 Orangery

Marta Jacobowski graduated with MA Womenswear from the Royal College of Art and regularly shows her collections during London Fashion Week. Her work has developed an unmistakable minimalist signature and has gained international recognition and evoked endorsement from the likes of Beyonce and Rihanna.
Fri 15:15 Orangery

Miranda Hackett is an artisan event florist. In 2010 she set up Miranda Hackett Flowers in Bray, Berkshire and in 2017 moved to South Devon. Her Zandra Rhodes-inspired flower crown workshops will help you create your own fresh flower crown to top off your festival outfit. Under 12s must be accompanied by an adult.
Sat 11:30, 13:00 Magpie Workshop

NJ Stevenson is a fashion curator, author and lecturer at London College of Fashion. Having worked with C20 Vintage to present annual fashion and popular culture events at Port Eliot Festival, she is now directing the new Fashion Foundation area and invites everyone to come and see what's happening and join in.
Sat 12:30 Orangery

Ops & Ops is a shoe brand inspired by long-time friends Teri and Steph's love of great shoes and 1960's culture. Join them for a step-by-step groove through 60s dance moves, including the Mashed Potato, the Watusi and the Freddie. Expect hip-shakin', foot-stompin' and great tunes. Afterwards, they'll be joining Dominic Lutyens to discuss the 60s influence in fashion.
Fri 15:45 Magick
Fri 16:45 Orangery

ART CAR BOOTFAIR Sunday take-over

This quintessentially British event - an informal and unique hybrid of an art fair and a car boot sale - offers the public a rare and intimate interaction with artists. They will be bringing a troupe of portraitists to the festival, including more traditional painter/sketcher options alongside:

Amelia Troubridge is an award winning photographer with an archive full of iconic shots of the likes of Nick Cave and Pam Hogg. She'll be snapping in the Orangery Garden as well as presenting some of her amazing archive.

Camille Phoenix is only 11 but is already causing a stir with her extraordinary art and design work. She will be drawing and encouraging others - kids and adults alike - to draw alongside her.

Bumble & Earwig - Laura makes faux taxidermy and creates portraits of pets using an incredible felting technique. She'll bring her latest series of animals and take orders for pet portraits!

Abigail Phallis Join her for some primal charcoal drawing - express yourself!

Beatrice Brown Psychic Portraits!

Misfortune Teller Welcome to Dark Therapy, witty and acute observations... this is not for the faint hearted!

Renaissance Selfies Make use of a treasure trove of historical garments and reveal your Renaissance Self!

Keira Rathbone will create a portrait of your eye knocked out on a typewriter while you watch (no blinking!)

Paul Davis is a witty artist illustrator, who makes satirical and very funny observations on life... plus a few portraits!

Wildcat Will puts together cool prints and Warholesque cans, and a game of target practice - plus a cool playlist.

Keeler Tornero This dynamic art duo will be bringing their interactive collage portrait project to the festival.

Sun 11:00 – 16:00 Magick and Magpie

Paul Gorman is a writer and curator who has contributed to many of the world's leading publications, including GQ, Vanity Fair and The Face. He'll be talking to George Cox flag-bearers Adam and Alistair Waterfield. There will also be a special catwalk event showcasing some revolutionary styles.
Sun 10:00 Orangery

Pearl Lowe formed her first band, Powder in 1994, and fronted the band Lodger with her husband Danny Goffey. In the 2000s she started designing lace curtains for boutique shops and dresses for Liberty in London. She is now crafting fancy dress costumes for kids and bespoke dresses for adults and has collaborated with brands such as Soho Home, Hilary Blinds, and Bert & May tiles.
Sat 13:45 Orangery

Phoebe English is a fashion label founded in 2011. Pieces are 'made in England' and created with detail and quality in mind, rejecting mass made or 'fast' fashion. Phoebe's patchwork quilting workshop will focus on the reuse of production off-cuts and reconsiders waste as a resource. Ages 14 and up.
Fri 11:30 Magpie Workshop

Piers Atkinson launched his first collection of luxury, handmade headpieces in 2008. His creations are now sold across the globe. He started working in Zandra Rhodes' atelier in 1999 after working on Andrew Logan's Alternative Miss World and has collaborated on many collections.
Sat 12:30 Orangery

Polly Playford is a graphic designer, illustrator and festival fashion designer. Her workshops focus on creating fab creations that reflect your individual style but are robust enough to survive the raves. Make your own pompom headdress - maybe add a mini disco ball, flowers or tinsel for extra funk. Suitable for all, under 12's with an adult.
Fri 16:00 Magpie Workshop

Port Eliot's Next Top Model Strut your stuff in Port Eliot's next top model! All ages are welcome. We will discuss the importance of confidence and kindness within the fashion industry and learn tips and tricks of practicality such as perfect posing and posture. Experience the energy and excitement within a team of creatives, working in groups acting as photographer, stylist and model.
Fri 12:00 Magick

The Royal School of Needlework produces bespoke hand embroidery for private commissions including work for Jasper Conran, Zandra Rhodes, and with HBO on Game of Thrones. Degree Graduates, Dev Patel, Carys Atkinson and Marketing Manager Bryna Black, talk with Tamara Cincik about moving hand embroidery into new areas of practice. They will also be hosting a Hand Embroidery workshop – from Streetwear to Sustainability. Suitable for ages 14 and up.
Fri 11:15 Orangery
Fri 14:30 Magpie Workshop

Preen was founded in 1996 by Justin Thornton and Thea Bregazzi. The label's punkish sensibilities, vintage elements and hand-crafted details soon gained cult status among the likes of Beyonce and Emma Stone. Join them to see how a catwalk look is put together before they finish with a runway show featuring festival-goers and fabulous Preen frocks.
Sat 15:30 Orangery

Sadie Williams creates modern textile driven fashion. She has worked for the likes of Marc By Marc Jacobs and undertaken commissions for Vogue Festival, Google & Squarespace. She continues to create tactile work bringing shimmer and sparkle to her collections through her signature use of metallic.
Fri 15:15 Orangery

Sarah Edwards has worked as a longtime collaborator on sets and installations with designer Molly Goddard. Her London fashion week sets have been staged at Somerset House and in Tate Britain. Sarah will recreate a 'fashion shoot' for a life drawing class with a model cast from the festival.
Sat 10:00 Magick Workshop

Socktopus - Art Activism Together Bring your odd socks to the Fashion Foundation and stitch onto Socktopus, an art project that will evolve over the weekend to highlight the problem of microfibres in the ocean. Commemorate 2019 - the year the world took positive action.
Fri – Sun Fashion Foundation Workshop

School of Bob X PREEN This one-off workshop invites kids to have fun designing their very own graphic collage to celebrate PREEN's label. The best will be featured online and one lucky winner will get tickets to a PREEN fashion show in London. Ages 6-16yrs. Under 8's accompanied by an adult.
Sat 11:30 Magick Workshop

Shiori Takahashi began hairdressing aged 17, and has been session hairstyling with clients ranging from Vogue to Adidas and Selfridges. She will be running a workshop creating abstract hairpieces using found objects. Suitable for all, under 10's accompanied by an adult.
Fri 13:00 Magpie Workshop

Glyn Dillon has drawn comics, and worked in film, TV and toy design. In recent years he teamed up with Dave Crossman as Costume Designers on SOLO: A Star Wars Story, having previously worked on Rogue One and The Force Awakens. In his workshop you'll design and paint a miniature model replica of a Mandalorian (Boba Fett) helmet. 10 years and up.
Sat 13:00 Magick Workshop

Tallulah & Hope was launched by Lisa Ispani and Zoe Holborough in 2010 in an effort to bring a new, refined modernity to the holiday wardrobe. They will be hosting an appliqué workshop to personalise a T&H tote bag. Suitable for ages 12+ or children accompanied by an adult.
Fri 17:30 Magpie Workshop

Tamara Cincik has 20 years experience in the fashion industry and has worked as a Parliamentary Researcher organising events with politicians, educationalists, and creative industry leaders. She now heads up the secretariat team for the All Party Parliamentary Group for Textiles and Fashion. She will be discussing influential artist Jean-Michel Basquiat with Karen Binns.
Fri 11:15, 13:45 Orangery

Tatsumi Orimoto's monumentally prolific career spans more than 45 years and includes seemingly bizarre activities such as "Bread Man", where he appears with his face obscured with French Bread Sticks. Learn about his inspirations and then get made up with French Sticks and Cornish loaves and contribute to the creation of a living sculpture.
Sun 12:30 Orangery

ZANDRA RHODES Fifty Years of Fabulous

To survive for 50 years in the push and pull of the fashion world is no mean feat. To remain an independent spirit, ploughing your distinctive furrow is an extraordinary one. Zandra Rhodes is one such extraordinary designer. To celebrate Dame Zandra's 50th anniversary, the Fashion and Textile Museum, London – founded by Zandra in 2013 – will be staging a career-spanning retrospective in September 2019. The museum is pleased to bring a selection of Zandra's creations to Port Eliot as part of her jubilee year celebration.

Fri – Sun 10:00 – 16:00
The Drawing Room

Join us at Lark's Haven, the little oasis of calm where stress and worry become a distant memory.

Aerial Yoga can increase flexibility, heal back problems, increase strength, improve balance, aid digestion and even improve memory! It can also build confidence and overcome fears, bringing out a light playful energy with feelings of the child within. You'll leave the sessions with beaming smiles and a spring in your step!
Fri – Sat 10:00, 11:45, 14:30, 16:15 Yogarena

Aromatherapy Yoga Join Jessica North for a hatha yoga class with a difference. You'll be given your own set of essential oils which will help breathe more fully and energise your postures. You'll leave feeling grounded, energised and ready for the day. You will also smell delicious!
Fri, Sun 10:15, Sat 11:30 Yogarena

Astronomy Download your personal birth chart with Francesca Oddie and learn what astrologers say when they talk about sun signs, moon signs and rising signs. Explore the signs of the zodiac from Aries through to Pisces and discover the drives, talents, behaviours and characteristics of each.
Fri 15:15, Sat, Sun 13:30 Yogarena

Bella Figura Kamin Mohammadi has written two books, The Cypress Tree: A Love Letter to Iran and Bella Figura: How To Live, Love and Eat the Italian Way. Her workshop will help you find your inner Sophia Loren: live, love and eat like an Italian to transform your life, your health and your waistline!
Fri 13:45 Idler Academy

Fear Hack Workshop Hilary Gallo has a background as a negotiator. Learn to talk about your fears in an open way. Imposter Syndrome? Anxiety? Big challenge coming up? Hack your fears and you'll soon see things differently.
Fri 11:45 Idler Academy Lawn

Inner QiGong Explore yourself through sensation, breath, visualisation, stillness and integrated movement. Focus on your sense of core being and the classical meridian pathways, which can be seen as archetypes of developmental movement.
Fri – Sun 8:00 Yogarena

Iyengar Yoga Penny Pendlebury is committed to the expression of Yogasana as a form of 'active meditation'. Her classes are 'a breathe of fresh air' for any serious yoga students. She is keen to further enhance their skills and to share her depth of knowledge. Please wear warm clothing and bring a mat, cushion/pillow if you have one!
Fri – Sun 09:00 Yogarena

Walking Therapy Jonathan Hoban is a leading Integrative Psychotherapist. He uses Walking Therapy to tackle issues of work-related stress, addiction anxiety and depression, and helps clients reconnect with their intuition and their sense of personal power. Join him on a therapeutic wander around the site.
Sat 11:15 The Idler Academy

Meditation & Journaling Joey Hulin is committed to offering down-to-earth, uplifting and transformative experiences and support. She will show you how to use meditation and journaling to gain clarity, creativity and to connect to your own truth, leaving you calm and centred.
Sat 16:45, Sun 13:30 Yogarena

Natural Imagination/Imaginative Nature When our imagination is awake, we find ourselves in lively conversation with the world around us. On this walking workshop you'll learn how to use the experience of nature as a tool for creativity in everyday life. Rosie Walford is an eco-psychologist who's led coaching forays into nature for 15 years.
Fri, Sat 13:30 Yogarena

Nonduality Meditation & Discussion: 'Who the Fuck are you Really?' Francis Michael Eliot grew up in Port Eliot, with ample time and space to explore the numerous corridors of his curious mind. Perhaps it's no surprise then that his adult life has been devoted to spiritual enquiry. Join him in contemplation of the nature of our shared identity through guided meditation and periods of discussion.
Fri 16:45, Sat, Sun 15:15 Yogarena

Kernow Springs

Seek out Cornwall's roaming eco spa down by the waterside. It's a place of private sanctuary where you can totally relax and unwind. With wood-fired hot tubs, a wood-fired sauna yurt, hot and cold showers, private changing rooms and a cosy Bedouin chill-out lounge complete with huge bean bags, rugs and throws.
All Weekend Sauna Corner

Psy Card Readings Reflect and consider where you are in life's journey, and where you want to be. Psyche Cards were designed with the principles of Jungian psychotherapy at their heart but they are also inspired by Celtic traditions and storytelling to create an empowering conversation.
All Weekend Larks Haven

Scaravelli Inspired Yoga Helen Noakes is a nomadic yoga and bodywork teacher and co-director of the Yoga Health Mandala. Focus on natural breathing and feel more connected, creating more intimacy with your spine and feet.
Fri, Sun 11:30, Sat 10:15 Yogarena

Soundbath Ceremony Maria Naylor uses voice, gentle Himalayan singing bowls, tuning folks, drum/percussion and Chicapo work as well as the 5Rs process to help with deeper self-reflection and mindfulness. The effect encourages mindfulness, self-awareness and calming, balancing your subtle energies which may have been in disharmony.
Thurs 15:15, Fri 13:30 Yogarena

SUP Yoga gives you no choice but to "be here now": practising yoga on your floating yoga mat is as present as you can be. Learn to pay attention to every breath and body movement as the water and winds shift around you.
Fri 11:30, 12:50, Sat 12:45, 14:00, Sun 14:00, 15:20 The Boathouse

Treatments Treat yourself or a loved one to a session with our team of highly experienced practitioners. Choose from: Acupressure, Aromatherapy, Deep Tissue massage, Full Body Massage, Holistic Massage, Indian Head Massage, Lomi Lomi Hawaiian Massage, Onsite Chair Massage, Pregnancy Massage, Reflexology, Reiki, Shiatsu and Thai Massage.
Lark's Haven reception

Not listed on Timetable Pages: Meeting for Friends of Bill W.

Thurs – Sun. 20:00 – 21:00 Yogarena

Food Stages

Intimate cookery experiences at the Big Kitchen and Open Fire.

Alys Fowler is a gardener, writer and presenter. She has written five books including The Thrifty Gardener and Hidden Nature. Her new book A Modern Herbal, celebrates everything there is to know about herbs and their significance in our gardens, kitchens, medicine cupboards and daily lives.

Sun 11:00 Open Fire

Anthony Warner is a professional chef and debunker of myths about food. His first book The Angry Chef was a winner in the Hearst Big Book Awards 2018. His new book, The Truth About Fat investigates why we are all getting fat and why it's happening more than ever before.

Fri 13:00 Open Fire

Bill Knott & Tanya Steytler Bill Knott started his career as a chef before co-founding the food and drink magazine Eat Soup in 1995. He now writes in the FT and The Oldie. Born and bred in Cornwall, Tania Steytler's love of food was fuelled as a child, by fishing on the Helford River and foraging on the seashore for mussels and oysters.

Sun 14:30 Open Fire

Claire Thomson is a food writer and chef. Faced with the daily challenge of cooking for her three young children, she created the 5 o'clock Apron instagram account and the book of the same name. Her latest book New Kitchen Basics was published earlier this year.

Fri 15:45 Bowling Green

Fri 13:30 Big Kitchen

Christine and Phil Jensen are pastry chefs, award winning cake designers and sugar craft artists. Their luxury cake business Peboryon supplies hotels and venues across London and the South West. They are also stars of Channel 4's Extreme Cake Makers, often focussing on unusual sculptural work.

Fri 15:30 Big Kitchen

Genevieve Taylor is a food writer, food stylist and presenter. Her latest book The Ultimate Wood Fired Oven Cookbook, shows how to harness the elemental power of fire. Her style of cooking is simple and packed with flavour, throwing off the shackles of technology and getting back to basics.

Fri 17:00 Open Fire

Gill Meller is a chef, food writer and teacher based in Dorset. He has been part of the River Cottage team for over 12 years appearing regularly on the Channel 4 series and contributing to their acclaimed cookbooks. Gill's River Cottage handbooks are Pigs & Pork, and this year's Outdoor Cooking.

Sat 11:00 Open Fire

Honey & Co. was set up in Fitzrovia in 2012 by Sarit, Itamar and their amazing team, serving traditional Middle Eastern fair. Their cookbooks are Honey & Co: Food from the Middle East which tells the story of the restaurant, and Honey & Co: The Baking Book, about the daily rhythms of work.

Fri 15:00 Open Fire

Sat 13:30 Big Kitchen

James Whetlor is behind Cabrito Goat Meat, the multiple award winning ethical food producer. James has appeared on Saturday Kitchen and Sunday Brunch and was on Channel 4's Hidden Restaurants with Michel Roux Jnr. GOAT: Cooking and Eating, his first cookbook, was published in 2018.

Sun 13:30 Big Kitchen

Sun 16:30 Open Fire

Jack Adair Bevan is an award-winning drinks and cocktail creator, writer, co-founder of The Ethicurean in Wroughton and of their house Vermouth The Collector. The Ethicurean Cookbook was published by Ebury in 2013 and the following year won a Gourmand World Cookbook Award.

Fri, Sat 18:30 Open Fire

Mark Devonshire grew up in Cornwall and has spent his life creating food using the county's fresh, locally grown and wild produce. He worked at Rick Stein's Seafood restaurant and now caters for private clients and teaches student chefs.

Thurs 17:00 Open Fire

Merlin Labron-Johnson became head chef of Portland in 2015 and gained a Michelin-star at the age of 24. He champions a number of charitable and altruistic initiatives. Recently included in the Forbes 30 under 30 award, Merlin is in the process of planning a brand new restaurant for 2019.

Fri 17:30 Big Kitchen

Miles Irving is the author of foraging classic, The Forager Handbook and his wild food supply company Forager Ltd serves restaurants throughout the UK. Miles is convinced that the biggest factor in our current ecological crisis is people's disconnection from landscapes and wild ecosystems.

Fri 11:00 Open Fire

Nick Strangeway learned his trade at venues like Fred's Club and Atlantic Bar & Grill. In 2003, he moved into drinks consultancy, for global brands Havana Club, Stolichnaya and Absolut. In 2006 he opened The Hawksmoor Steakhouse and in 2008 was awarded the title 'International Mixologist of the Year.'

Fri, Sat 18:30 Open Fire

Nick Weston is a hunter, forager, fisherman and chef. He established Hunter Gather Cook in 2011, a foraging and cookery school that puts the emphasis on high-end dishes. They have since passed on their knowledge and skills to 1000s of people from their 30ft Treehouse base. Their new cookbook is Hunter Gather Cook: Adventures in Wild Food.

Sun 12:30 Open Fire

Olia Hercules was born in Ukraine before moving to Cyprus as a child. After settling in the UK she trained at Leiths and worked as a chef de partie, including at Ottolenghi. Her cookbook Mamushka won the Fortnum & Mason Award for best debut 2016. Her latest is Kaukasis: A Culinary Journey through Georgia, Azerbaijan and Beyond.

Sat 15:00 Open Fire

Ollie Templeton is the head chef and co-founder of Carousel, a restaurant whose open kitchen hosts an ever-changing line-up of talented chefs from around the world. Carousel's menu features some of the very best produce from around the British Isles, and each collaboration has shaped Ollie's style of cooking and opened his mind to new ideas.

Sat 17:30 Big Kitchen

Pen Vogler is a food historian whose books, Dinner with Mr Darcy and Dinner with Dickens, explore the social and emotional importance of food in the life and works of Jane Austen and Charles Dickens. She edited Penguin's Great Food series, has written widely on food history for the press and recreated recipes from the past for radio and TV.

Sun 11:30 Big Kitchen

Polly Russell is the historical presenter for BBC2's Back in Time... strand, appearing in the most recent series, Back in Time for School, earlier this year alongside Sara Cox. She is a curator at the British Library, and a freelance food writer and consultant. Polly will be taking part in Russell Norman's food quiz and giving a talk that draws on the culinary history of Port Eliot house.

Fri 15:45 Bowling Green

Sat 11:30 Big Kitchen

Rachel Ama was a self-confessed KFC addict as a teenager but decided to go vegan three years ago, aged 23. She now has a legion of youtube followers who are all hungry for her delicious vegan recipes. She often also looks abroad for flavour inspiration, and to both her Caribbean and African roots. Her first book is Rachel Ama's Vegan Eats.

Sun 15:30 Big Kitchen

Ross Geach worked as a chef for Rick and Jill Stein before returning to his family farm and setting up Padstow Kitchen Garden. They provide mixed veg boxes, run gardening courses, and deliver freshly picked, delicious farm produce to local restaurants. Ross occasionally appears on BBC Radio Cornwall and writes for the Telegraph.

Fri 17:00 Open Fire

Sun 17:30 Big Kitchen

Russell Norman is an award-winning restaurateur, writer and broadcaster. His book Polpo - A Venetian Cookbook (of Sorts) won Waterstones Book of the Year 2012. In 2014 he presented The Restaurant Man, a six-part prime-time documentary for BBC2. His latest book Venice: Four Seasons of Home Cooking, was published in 2018. Russell will be hosting "Russell Norman's Celebrity Chef Food Quiz" on the Bowling Green, and cooking over fire.

Fri 15:45 Bowling Green

Sat 17:00 Open Fire

Valentine Warner is a cook, food writer and broadcaster. Trained originally as a portrait painter, he went on to become a chef in London's kitchens for five years before running his own catering company. His deep love of cooking, nature and travel has seen him make seven series whilst contributing to others. Valentine has written four cookery books, three of which he illustrated as well. He is also the co-founder of the Hepple distillery, the producers of Hepple Gin, Sloe and Hawthorn Gin and Douglas Vodka with a wider range of curious spirits on the way. He has programmed the Outside Fire Stage this year and will be hosting it across the weekend. He has his own solo demo slot on Saturday afternoon.

All Weekend Open Fire

Sat 13:00 Open Fire

William Sitwell is one of Britain's leading food writers. He is a restaurant critic for the Telegraph and was formerly the multi-award-winning editor of acclaimed magazine Waitrose Food for 16 years. William has authored books including A History of Food in 100 Recipes and The Really Quite Good British Cookbook. He is also one of the long-standing critics on the hit BBC show MasterChef.

Fri 13:00 Open Fire

Fri 15:45 Bowling Green

Zoe Adjonyoh started her career in food with her West African supperclub. Her modern approach to home-style Ghanaian cooking introduced a new audience to West African cuisine. She has been shortlisted at 2017's UK Festival Awards for Best Concession and named Top 10 Best Streetfood Trader in London by Foodism. Her book Zoe's Ghana Kitchen is published by Mitchell Beazley.

Sat 15:30 Big Kitchen

EATING AND DRINKING

From fresh coffee to unforgettable cocktails, locally sourced seafood to cream teas, we've got it covered.

B-Bar make authentic Thai noodle dishes cooked fresh to order. Using quality fresh vegetables and meat sourced from local independent suppliers, they combine them with unique sauces created in-house. They've gained a reputation as one of the most authentic Thai tastes you can find in the South West.

BBQ Dreamz serve bold, mouth-watering dishes – inspired by Lee's Filipino heritage – that have earned them a place in Time Out's top ten streetfood vendors for two years running. Their updated versions of traditional classics recently featured on the BBC's Million Pound Menu where they wowed the judges and won investment with their innovative food.

The Bhangra Bus is a vegetarian and vegan cafe, specialising in Indian cuisine, that provides somewhere comfy and atmospheric for people to sit down. Food is prepared fresh on site, their coffee and tea is organic, and they cater for a wide range of dietary and allergy-specific requirements.

Bittenclub, The Vietnamese Eatery, combines the vibrant zingy flavours of Vietnam with robust classic French ingredients. Expect delicious-tasting baguettes, noodle salads and jasmine rice bowls filled with marinated crunchy raw vegetables, zingy sauces and fresh herbs. Indulge in French toast with pecans and cinnamon or an invigorating broth and a rolled omelette.

The Black Cow Saloon is the low-light, hard-drinkin', foot-stompin' honky tonk down by the riverside. They'll be serving finest Black Cow Pure Milk Vodka, 'The Spirit of The West', magnificent vodka cocktails and thirst-quenching hand crafted cider and lager. Live music will take you through the day and night.

BROO are bringing back their delicious all natural Bubble Teas to Port Eliot for 2019. Fresh Direct Trade jasmine tea and Clifton Coffee, fruit purées, all natural popping boba, baked brownies and cakes are all returning this year! They are also pleased to announce a new special edition bubble tea for the festival: Quad.

Butter Fudge Co. make artisan-style all-natural confectionery with no artificial ingredients or flavourings. Based in St. Germans, they hand cook their unique and rustic all-natural butter fudge in open pans and in a variety of melt-in-the-mouth, sweet and buttery flavours and textures.

Chip off the Block believe they have created the perfect chip – triple-cooked and blended with cheese to create something truly spectacular. They use multi award-winning Montgomery's Cheddar and Oglesfield cheeses, coupled with hand-picked potatoes from their farm in the heart of Somerset.

The Chop Bar serves modern west African flavours inspired by traditional recipes. Zoe Adjonyoh has been pioneering modern African food in the form of supper clubs, pop-ups, street food and events since 2010 and now has a cookbook – Zoe's Ghana Kitchen.

Churros Bros have been travelling the country in Juanna the Van since 2007. They serve award-winning handmade organic churros – the best you can find outside of Madrid – alongside silky hot chocolate from Villajoyosa and Allpress Espresso coffee. It's the place to go for that late night treat or morning fix.

The Cooking Cooks are Francesco and Alice, and they serve up beautiful, handcrafted, fresh pasta. Their influences come from the vast larder of Italian cooking but have been given an added twist. They use the freshest ingredients and experiment with seasonal ideas and different flavours.

Coombe Farm Organic has been farming in Somerset since the 1940s and for the past 20 or so years has held Soil Association organic status. It's their ethical farming choices that create the unbeatable flavours found in the food they produce.

Cosy Rosie's is a family-run cafe and creperie based around a beautiful vintage lorry with seating at tables inside and out. Their crepes and galettes are bursting with fresh, wild, organic produce. They also serve a daily vegan bowl, hot drinks in china mugs, homemade lemonade and healthy sweet treats.

Dartmouth Ice Cream Company feel ice cream is not just a summer-time treat but a year-round passion. They endeavour to produce a quality, artisan product using the best ingredients and pride themselves on creativity and innovation. Treat yourself to a scoop of heaven from Devon!

Deli Pops make mouthwateringly delicious gourmet ice lollies in St Agnes, Cornwall using original Italian-inspired recipes. They're packed with so much whole fruit you can see the seeds, and are 100% natural, vegan friendly and gluten- and dairy-free.

Elseafood proudly support the Cornwall Good Seafood Guide and select all their ingredients locally, from the sustainable seafood to the Cornish Sea Salt - even the quality ales used in their batter. Highlights include crispy salt & pepper squid, fish & chips, moules mariniere and surf 'n' turf.

Ginger's Comfort Emporium is an ice cream van for kids and grown-ups alike, serving a range of inventively flavoured and incredibly delicious handmade dairy ice cream and sorbet. There are naughty flavours, exotic flavours, daring flavours – all lip-lickingly good.

Good & Proper Tea launched in 2012, and since then the team have taken their much-loved Citroen van to events across the UK, feeding and watering thirsty festival goers as they go. The team serve loose leaf, custom-brewed teas and freshly-toasted sourdough crumpets to finish.

Greenall's Bar is located down in front of the house - why not try their unusual flavoured gins, Wild Berry and Blueberry. They're wonderfully tasty, with no sugar or artificial sweeteners.

Hanoi Kitchen was inspired by the experience of travelling across Vietnam, eating the best street food and speaking to all the locals about their favourite eats. Their recipes strike the perfect balance between hot, spicy, fresh and fragrant and are garnished generously with lime, garlic, ginger and chilli.

Happy Maki is all about freshly rolled vegan sushi. Bursting with fusion fillings, their futomaki rolls are super-addictive, filling and healthy too. Their tried and tested menu has got everyone's taste buds covered, from the carnivore approved Hoisin Duck, to the fresh and flavoursome Avocado Kiss.

Hot P'tatoes serve up decadent and nutritious vegetarian comfort food. From roast potatoes and cheese fondue, to hash browns, BBQ jackfruit and crispy kale, there's something for the whole family, including all your dietary requirements.

Katie's Cornish Hot Pots is run by a husband-and-wife team with a twelve-year history in both restaurant fine dining and outside catering. They will be serving Monk Fish Curry, Moroccan Chicken and Caribbean Goat Curry, all made in their own signature style.

Le Vignoble is an independent wine merchant based in the historic Royal William Yard in Plymouth. They will be serving their delightful wines in the walled garden alongside the Oyster Shack, with wines matched to the fresh seafood menu. The team will be happy to advise you on your festival wine choices.

Lemon Jelli has come a long way from a tiny juice bar in Totnes to the French-inspired crêpe, coffee, shake and juice van that it is today. They have occupied the corner plot on the Bowling Green for some 13 years now! Wherever they are you are guaranteed the same friendly welcome.

Little Green Trailer serve awesome all-day brunch from a pastel green trailer all set to an amazing soundtrack. Burritos, butties, avocado toast and fry-ups, with vegan and gf menus. The service they provide is as important as the food they serve – hugs and high fives all day!

Man'eesh, Manaish or Manakish are flatbreads from the Levant (Syria, Lebanon, Palestine) typically served with a topping of Za'atar and olive oil, cheese or a minced lamb mix. Big Bang Pizza cook them in their wood-fired oven, to make the perfect festival meal. They also sell various delicatessen from Palestine acquired from Zayto.

Manic Organic have more than 30 years experience serving festival food. Their delicious, freshly prepared vegan fayre uses local organic produce, including leaves and edible flowers from their own Cornish smallholding. Their nutritious range includes their famous cooked breakfast that gives heart to many a happy returning customer.

The Middle Feast are all about flavors of the middle east, always with a twist. Free range lamb and chicken are marinated for 48 hours for maximum succulence, and cooked over fire on their traditional mangal adding smoke, heat and texture to their kebabs. Excellent vegan and vegetarian dishes always feature prominently.

Muffin Man & Co make fine, homemade English filled Muffins with an almost sourdough taste. They source the very best ingredients: smoked eel and salmon from a small smokery in Lincolnshire; free range pork from an award-winning butcher in Essex; and Oglesfield cheese from Somerset.

Noco HQ make use of Harry's organic produce from Haye Farm in Devon, Alex's family run farm and fishing boat in Cornwall, and the best seasonal Cornish ingredients. Their produce is cooked in a simple way to deliver delicious plates of food with bold, seasonal flavours.

Nurses Cottage Drinks specialise in traditionally-made drinks made from the very best that the fields, hedgerows, and orchards have to offer. Their award-winning cordials and pressés are great for hydrating party people - great taste and quality ingredients are always the priority.

The Off Road Café serves freshly ground and locally roasted coffee, a selection of hot and cold drinks and homemade cakes – all from a Land Rover Defender 110. They're passionate about food and use the highest quality local ingredients where possible.

Orangery Bar Head up to the Orangery for BLOOM's deliciously stylish cocktails, made with their much-loved sugar-free gins and luscious flavoured gin liqueurs, including Lemon & Elderflower. If you haven't tried their gins before, you're in for a treat. The bar will also offer Dubliner whiskey, another favourite.

Origins Coffee blend science and senses, ritual and experimentation. Obsessing over every detail and measuring quality at every stage, Origin Coffee Roasters are a leading speciality coffee roaster in the UK with six coffee shops, and SCA training facilities in London and Cornwall.

The Oyster Shack in Bigbury, has established a reputation for its award-winning seafood. They provide the finest foods and showcase seasonal local produce. Chef's speciality is in sustainable seafood, and their tables are graced with lobster, crab, diver-caught scallops and, of course, oysters galore.

The Piskie's Pantry in Wildlings Wood serves up stealthily healthy food with a spot of mischief, daily between 8am and 7:30pm. Head over with your little ones for breakfast pancakes, bento-box style lunches and dinner delights at this dedicated cafe for children.

The Rioja Wine Terrace provides a taste of Spain's flagship wine region. Relax in an outdoor bar, sample a diverse array of wines, enjoy a sample of jamón ibérico, and learn about the delicious diversity of Rioja with Sunday Brunch wine expert, Raul Diaz.

Sharp's Brewery was founded in 1994 by Bill Sharp in Rock, North Cornwall. It is the brewer of one of the UK's most popular ales, Doombar alongside Offshore Pilsner, Atlantic Pale Ale and more.

Smoky Tentacles is housed in a custom made Moroccan marquee. They serve an awesome chai alongside great organic/free range veg breakfasts and fantastic falafel wraps, all made from scratch on site. Think rugs, Moroccan lanterns, sofas, low slung tables, good tunes and good vibes.

The Stargazy Rum Bar is hidden in the glade at the top of the hill among the trees. They serve up made-to-order cocktails and live DJ sets: early afternoons sees The Analogue Cabin; 4pm is Silent Disco time; at dusk they're running vinyl-only 45rpm sets. Later on the party really gets started.

Sunbeams is a beautiful, oak lined, solar powered Juice Bar, created and run by James, Lullu and daughter Ruby. They create exquisite handmade, organic and dairy/gluten/refined sugar-free treats that taste divine while improving health and vitality, and serve the finest cold pressed juices, smoothies, raw cakes, chocolates and pralines.

Thyme & Tide showcases Chef Lee Lake's passion for food. Inspired by his travels, he creates vibrant and healthy seafood and vegetarian dishes using locally caught seafood and fresh, sustainable produce available within Cornwall. You either eat to live or live to eat – we favour the latter.

The Woodfired Canteen is an inviting dining spot next to the House run by Ben Quinn and his team. It serves up a faultless mix of wood-fired food, coffee shop culture, festival vibes and good honest hospitality. Come along for your all-important morning coffee, grab some lunch or find a space to plan your day.

Woodfired Suppers Each day, Ben Quinn and his team will roam the Port Eliot grounds and lay a long table meal for over 100 guests... when the perfect weather window permits. A seat at Woodfired Canteens long table is £25 – head to Woodfired Canteen right by the House to book your place.

Woody's is all about the classic Neapolitan pizza. A light, crispy base and fresh, inventive toppings, baked in a wood-fired oven. The menu has something for everyone, including firm favourite Spicy Fennel Sausage and Foraged Wild Garlic Pesto with Crispy Kale and Courgette. It's simple, satisfying and delicious.

Yallah serve great tasting, honest coffee roasted at their barn in the midst of Cornwall's rural wilds. It's made for everyday adventurers with a full attitude towards life. Their principles are simple: they roast exceptional coffee and have fun while they do it.

WORKSHOPS AND OUTDOOR

Everything you need to plan your timetable of activities over the weekend.

Aardman Model-Making Join Will Harding, Aardman's expert model-maker, as he guides you step-by-step through the process. You'll learn how to craft your very own model of one their world famous characters: Gromit, Shaun the Sheep or Feathers McGraw. Suitable for all the family.
Fri & Sun 10:30, 13:00, 15:30
Sat 11:30, 14:00, 16:30 Hole & Corner

Aerial Hoop Workshop Cirque de Silk's aerial hoop workshops are a fantastic way of improving strength and flexibility, it is also a great place to have fun and take your mind of any life stresses. Our instructor will ensure you feel confident and happy when achieving new moves.
Fri 16:00, Sun 10:00, 13:00 Great Outdoors, Meet at Workshop Barn

Aerial Silk Workshop This circus and gymnastics artform leaves you suspended in air! As your body wraps and knots around two lengths of fabric you'll strike incredible positions and moves. And just imagine the photo opportunities!
Thurs & Sun 16:00, Fri 10:00, 13:00 Great Outdoors, Meet at Workshop Barn

Aerial Yoga can increase flexibility, heal back problems, increase strength, improve balance, and even improve memory! It can also build confidence and overcome fears. Bring out a light playful energy with feelings of the child within.
Fri & Sat 10:00, 11:45, 14:30, 16:15 Lark's Haven

The Alice in Wonderland Treasure Hunt Solve riddles and unravel rhyming couplets to reveal characters hidden around the site. Expect potions, fun games and prizes. Finish with a Mad Hatters Tea Party, a lucky dip and a sing-song for all those who've fathomed the adventure.
Fri & Sat 11:00 – 13:30 Great Outdoors, Meet at Workshop Barn

Archery Come and try your hand at the noble art of archery, with expert guidance from the instructor from Canoe Cornwall. Learn how to manage and shoot with a bow, learn a little of its history and burst a balloon or two! Suitable for ages 6yrs and up!
Thurs 15:30, Fri – Sun 9:30, 11:30, 13:30, 15:30
Great Outdoors, Meet at the Games Arena

As Seen from a Sidecar How can we be more mindful of the environment, while developing new travel and exploration plans? Meet explorers who have travelled with a cause and a sense of purpose.
Fri – Sun 13:00, 15:00 Survival Wisdom Camp

Axe Carving Learn tool safety using an axe and knife to create a spoon from scratch. In military survival, this skill is used to teach safe use of survival tools and techniques. Once your hour is up you can then drop in over the weekend to complete your own unique memory of Port Eliot 2019.
Fri – Sun 9:30 – 11:00 Survival Wisdom Camp

Axe Throwing Come and see if you can plant one of our small axes in the wooden target. These axes are designed for short range throwing, and require more skill than Viking rage! And this year there will be specially designed wooden axes for the young ones to try. Drop in.
Fri – Sun 09:30 – 18:00 Great Outdoors, Meet at the Games Arena

Blacksmith Your Own Bottle Opener Somerset-based Alex Pole produces all his work by hand at The Forge, now dedicating his focus to Forge Kitchenware which he supplies to top restaurants and chefs. Learn how to work steel at different temperatures using a hammer and an anvil to make your very own bottle opener.
Fri & Sat 10:00, 14:00, 16:00
Sun 10:00, 14:00 Hole & Corner

Bookbinding Award winning bookbinder Kate Holland will guide you step-by-step through the joys of making the ultimate portable technology – the book. You will come away with a hardback book that you have made from scratch and all the skills required for you to continue and elaborate at home.
Sun 10:00, 12:00 Workshop Barn 2

Botanical Illustration Sarah Jane will guide you through the basics of drawing beautiful flowers and foliage with precision and poise. This is a wonderful opportunity to take on some fresh inspiration from naturally derived subjects.
Fri 15:30 Workshop Barn 1

Canadian Canoeing Take a gentle paddle upriver, away from the bustling festival site under the care and guidance of Jay Dorman, owner and professional canoe instructor of Canoe Cornwall. No experience is necessary, although under 16's will need to be accompanied by an adult.
Fri 12:00, Sat 13:00, Sun 14:00 Great Outdoors, Meet at the Boathouse

Cider Vs Cheese Cider Box will take you on a magical journey into the world of the two finest fermented things in the world. Explore the history, the stories, the passion, and of course the flavours that go into making the best ciders and the most incredible mouth-watering cheeses.
Thurs 16:00, Fri & Sat 16:45, Sun 15:00
Workshop Barn 1

Cyanotype Workshop Joanne Kernan, from London-based stationery studio Pompadour Press, will help you create vintage-looking cyanotype sun prints using flower cuttings from the surrounding gardens. The results of this very early photographic process will create a unique keepsake.
Fri & Sat 12:30 Hole & Corner

Darning, Repairs and Stitching Sally Walton is a champion of making sustainability and eco-living beautiful – her vintage fabric bag company Carry-A-Bag was ahead of the curve to encourage shoppers to ditch plastic. Bring along a ripped pair of jeans or a moth-eaten jumper and Sally will show you how to bring them back to life!
Fri 13:30, Sun 09:30, 14:45 Hole & Corner

Defence Against the Dark Arts Clive Sutton is a lecturer in Psychology at Truro College. "Defence Against The Dark Arts" is about how people exert their will over others. If you've ever hoped for a little more social resilience or have trouble saying 'no' then this could be for you.
Sun 12:00 Workshop Barn 1

Dick Pearce & Friends handcraft bellyboards in their workshop in Newquay. They want to share their passion for surfing as it was meant to be, without the fuss and with all the fun. Join them to hand-paint your own bellyboard - they'll have everything you need to get creative.
Sun 11:30 Walled Garden

Signing up:

Workshop Barns

Book tickets at the Info point on the Haha. Arrive from 09:00 to book tickets for that day.

Hole & Corner

Book tickets at the Info point on the Haha. Arrive from 09:00 to book tickets for that day.

Great Outdoors

Book tickets at the Info point on the Haha. Arrive from 09:00 to book tickets for that day. Then meet at the designated point.

Survival Wisdom

Book tickets at the Info point on the Haha. Meet at the Survival Wisdom camp.

Caught by the River

Drop in any time between 11:00 and 18:00.

Idler Lawn

Turn up at the Idler tent just before the workshops start. For Frisbee tree golf, sign up in advance at the Idler Academy.

All workshops at Fashion, Wellbeing and Wildlings Wood are free and drop-in. Admission on a first-come-first-served basis

Fear Hack Workshop Hilary Gallo has a background as a negotiator and has been running workshops for three years. Imposter Syndrome? Anxiety? Big challenge coming up? Hack your fears and you'll soon see things differently.
Fri 11:45 Idler Academy

Flint and Steel Overnight Campout

A night under the stars for 9-12 year-olds! Build shelters to sleep in, cook up a campfire supper and enjoy learning other survival skills. Booking is essential (Workshop Barn Reception.)
Fri 17:00 – Sat 9:00 Flint and Steel HQ

Foraging Along the River

Join wild food expert Stuart Woodman for a stroll along the banks of the Tiddy. Learn how to identify and gather from nature's larder and pick up some ideas on how to incorporate wild seasoning in your culinary repertoire.
Fri – Sun 10:00 – 11:00 Great Outdoors, meet at the Workshop Barn

Forest School Breakfast and Supper Clubs

Give your child the chance to learn some skills, make festival friends and explore the woods! They'll build a den, light a fire, decorate a flag, toast marshmallows and play games before prepping and cooking a meal guided by our wonderful staff.
Thurs – Sun 9:00 – 12:00 & 15:00 – 18:00
Flint and Steel Forest School

Frame loom Weaving Maria Sigma is an award-winning textile brand specialising in 'zero waste' ethical hand-woven textiles. Work in a small group and learn new skills on your own small wooden frame loom. It is as meditative and relaxing as it is focussed and creative.
Fri 9:30, Sat 14:30 Hole & Corner

Fresh Flower Workshop Becca, of The Garden Gate Flower Company creates beautiful things using only British flowers – including those grown in her garden at Duchy of Cornwall Nursery. Learn how to create a floral hair crown or necklace guaranteed to light up your Friday night party!
Fri 15:15, 16:30 Workshop Barn 2

Frisbee Tree Golf Like Frisbees? Like Golf? Well you're sure to enjoy their now legendary hybrid form. Join sporting alchemist Ben Moor for daily rounds of this dastardly and fiendish game.
Sat 13:00, 14:00, 15:00, 16:00 Idler Lawn

Global Future Foods Learn how to find a source of nutrition wherever you are around the globe, setting traps and snares, catching food, and using nets for fishing - even improvising a cooker. Sample some interesting, tasty superfoods along the way.
Fri – Sun 11:30 – 13:00 Survival Wisdom Camp

Idle Bee-keeping Bill Anderson is a director of television drama and a bee expert - he will teach you how to keep bees the easy way and harvest your own honey without ever being stung.
Sun 11:00 Idler Lawn

Interpretation Of Dreams Learn about Freudian Psychoanalysis and the roles of the ego and the unconscious. Before long you'll be exploring ego-defence mechanisms and uncovering the true meaning of the nonsense we recall when we wake up.
Sun 13:00 Workshop Barn 1

Leather Coasters Learn how to cut and edge finish a set of vegetable-tanned leather coasters and then let loose with paints under the guidance of Lucie Cast. Suitable for all – under 15s accompanied by an adult. Please don't wear anything too fancy as we do not have aprons for everyone.
Sun 10:30 Workshop Barn 1

Leather Origami Purses Lucie Cast will help you make an origami coin purse using natural vegetable-tanned leather before hand painting it to make it truly unique. Suitable for all – under 15s accompanied by an adult. All materials provided but please don't wear anything too fancy as we do not have aprons for everyone.
Sun 16:30 Workshop Barn 1

Leather Sunglasses Cases Bill Amberg is one of the most exciting people working in British craft – his work appears in the permanent collection of the V&A and New York's Metropolitan Museum of Art. The Bill Amberg Studio team invite you to experience leather-work up close, using traditional techniques to create your very own leather sunglasses case.
Sat 15:00, Sun 12:00 Hole & Corner

Life Drawing These workshops with Jason Walker will look at form, structure, proportion, line, tone and mark making. Artists will draw from the figure, using a mix of modern and traditional methods. Open to all abilities from the novice through to the more experienced draughtsman.
Fri 18:00 Workshop Barn 2

Mask-Making Pete Fowler has forged a career as a freelance artist/illustrator and designer out of many hours as a child sat in front of TV cartoons and buried in comics. He'll be DJing and holding mask-making workshops.
Thurs 15:00 – 19:00, Fri – Sun 12:00 – 19:00 CBTR

Men Are Singing Workshop

Seamas Carey is a musician, actor and the ringleader of Cornwall's new alternative male voice choir Men Are Singing. Despite often liking the sounds of their own voices, lots of men struggle to sing in a group. But it's fun, and good for your physical and mental health. Join him for some hollering and silly games. No need to book – just rock up!
Fri 15:00 Park Stage

Mermaid Crowns With over 20 years' professional experience, costume designer Fiona Chivers and her team will help you delve into a treasure chest of foraged shells, magic pearls and sea glass to fashion into your very own mermaid crown. Basic hand sewing required.
Sat 12:30, 13:45 Workshop Barn 1

Workshops

Mid Summer Wassail is an ancient activity to ward off evil spirits, and encourage good health and a good harvest for the remainder of the year. Join this wild rumpus through the Port Eliot grounds including a flame torch procession and the singing of traditional wassail verses.
Sat 21:00 – 22:30 Great Outdoors, meet at Workshop Barn

Mindful Botanical Illustration

Immerse yourself in our serene space, wake up your inner mindfulness and learn to slow down, with Sarah Jane Humphrey. She will guide you through the basics of drawing beautiful flowers and foliage with precision and poise.
Sat 15:15 Workshop Barn 1

Mindful Kombucha Making Kombucha is a live unpasteurised soft drink packed full of naturally occurring active ingredients including probiotics, vitamins, enzymes and organic acids. Eaoifa, from Boo Chi Kombucha will teach the basics and explore its history and health benefits.
Thurs 16:30, Sat & Sun 16:00 Workshop Barn 2

Miss Mitten’s Collage Academy

The Elephant In The Tent is a collage masterclass. Miss Mitten, a renowned international collage artist, will help you explore your surrealist side using just scissors, a glue stick and some friendly banter. Find an elephant to bring with you (preferably a paper one!)
Sat 12:00 Workshop Barn 2

Modern Calligraphy Learn about the tools and techniques of calligraphy, and how to write each calligraphy letter. Includes a beautiful take home kit including a nib, pen holder, ink pot and practice sheets so you can continue to write beautiful modern calligraphy.
Fri 10:00, 11:15 Workshop Barn 1

The Mudflappers are an irreverent band of swing dancers who perform and teach dances such as the lindy hop, the Charleston, the St Louis Shag and their own special mash-up, Lindy Hip Hop. In a matter of minutes, on-lookers will think you’ve been dancing for years.
Fri 11:15, 15:00, 17:30, Sat 12:30, 16:30, 18:45, Sun 12:30, 13:45, 16:15 Idler Lawn

Neon Naked is a unique life drawing experience that uses UV to create a colourful twist. Create vibrant and bold living sculptures, combining reactive body paints and flamboyant handcrafted accessories. Art supplies are provided and beginners are welcome.
Fri & Sat, 21:00, 22:45 Workshop Barn 1

Nighttime Witch Walk The Museum of Witchcraft and Magic in Boscastle houses the most comprehensive collection of witchcraft and folk magic artefacts in the world. Their resident folklorist Steve Patterson will host a walk around the site sharing true tales of piracy, ghosts, myths and magic.
Fri – Sun 21:00 – 22:00 Great Outdoors, meet at Workshop Barn

Off-Road Vehicle: Ultimate Survival Tool How many survival aids can you get from a vehicle in an extreme travel emergency? This family workshop is a must for any aspiring road-trippers or seasoned explorers.
Fri 10:30, 15:00, Sat 10:30, Sun 10:30, 15:00 Survival Wisdom Camp

Outdoor Photography: Daytime Join Tommy Hatwell and open your eyes to the possibilities of photography. Born in Devon Tommy has lived, worked and photographed all over the globe. In 2017, his image ‘NightSchool’ was selected and exhibited for the Taylor Wessing Portrait Prize at the National Portrait Gallery.
Thurs 16:00, Fri – Sun 14:00 Great Outdoors, meet at Workshop Barn

Outdoor Photography: Nighttime Exploring as the day fades away can be a daunting prospect but there are many creative options open to us after dark. A tripod and head torch would be an advantage, but not essential. But you must have a Digital camera with Manual Controls.
Fri & Sat 21:00 – 23:00 Great Outdoors, meet at Workshop Barn

Outdoor Photography: Under 16s. Learn to explore and see the world from all angles. Bring any digital camera – including your Smart Phone/Compact Camera and join Tommy Hatwell as he opens your eyes to the possibilities of photography.
Thurs 14:00, Fri – Sun 10:00 – 11:30 Great Outdoors, meet at Workshop Barn

Paintball Target Practice Test your skill and speed on this non-contact firing range using state-of-the-art Paintball Markers. You will be put through your paces on this tactical range, picking off targets and entering tactical scenarios. Drop in – no need to book in advance.
Fri – Sun 09:30 – 18:00 The Games Arena

Paper Flower Making: Anemones Handcraft a detailed paper anemone using high grade Italian crepe paper. Bee Watson will guide you through the process, teaching techniques that will make you feel confident to continue this craft in your own time. All materials included. Ages 16+.
Sat 10:00 Workshop Barn 2

Paper Flower Making: Cosmos Join paper florist Bee Watson for an introduction to the beautiful art of paper flower making using high grade Italian crepe paper. All materials included. All creative abilities welcome. Suitable for ages 16+
Sat 14:00 Workshop Barn 2

Paper Making by hand is now an endangered craft in Britain, with Jane Ponsford among a select few artists that continue to use traditional methods. Under her guidance, you’ll use a ‘mold and deckle’, encouraging experimentation and creativity to create unique and personal works.
Fri – Sun 10:00 Hole & Corner

Parkour Workshop Control Movement is a Cornwall-based Parkour/Freerunning group. They will be teaching vaults, jumps, balancing and other basic Parkour skills. If you have always wanted to give Parkour a go or just want to explore the world in a new way, then this is your chance.
Thurs 14:00, 16:00, Fri 10:00, 12:00, 14:00, 16:00 Parkour Course

Portrait Painting Learn the essential skills of portraiture including an overview of basic anatomy, structure, composition, proportion and drawing techniques whilst working from a live model. Suitable for 16 years of age and upwards.
Sat 18:00 Workshop Barn 2

Pottery Workshops Experience the art of throwing clay on a wheel with Japanese potter Yo Thom. Yo studied in the UK and became an apprentice of Lisa Hammond before establishing her own studio in 2004, making stoneware influenced by both Japanese and British origins.
Fri & Sat 9.30, 11:15, 13:30, 15:15, 17:00
Sun 9.30, 11:15, 13:30, 15:15 Hole & Corner

Quilting with House of Quinn Julius Arthur from House of Quinn will demonstrate both traditional and contemporary techniques and help you work on your own design. Create a miniature version to take away and enjoy, armed with the knowledge to make your own bigger quilt in the future.
Fri 14:00 Hole & Corner

Rope Jewellery Acclaimed British designer and textile artist Eleanor Boulton is known for her sculptured cotton rope jewellery techniques. Make a ‘half-hitch’ rope necklace in your choice of colour, to enjoy a fun introduction to rope jewellery making – there’s lots of help on hand if required.
Fri 12:00, Sat 10:00 Hole & Corner

Screenprinting with Make-Ready Make-Ready is a specialist London based screen-printing studio co-run by Tom Murphy and Hugh Barrell. Using their mobile printing presses they will help your very own limited edition print or t-shirt.
Fri 12:30, 14:00, 15:30, 17:00 Sat 14:00, 15:30, 17:00 Sun 13:00, 14:30, 16:00 Hole & Corner

Simple Shibori with Lancaster & Cornish Discover the ancient Japanese Art of shape resist dyeing with Sian Cornish. Combine plant dyes with gorgeous silks and simple techniques to create a unique piece of shibori to take home. Suitable for over 14’s.
Fri 10:00, 11:45 Workshop Barn 2

Skateboard Deck Making with ERA Skateboards Craft your very own West Coast 60’s inspired skateboard deck. Barny Cooke and Andy Bagley from ERA will help you create a skateboard deck, cutting the shape and refining it into something cool. Include trucks wheels at an additional cost to complete your setup.
Fri 16:00, Sat 12:00 Hole & Corner

Spear Throwing Come and try your hand to see if you would make a great warrior. Locally hand forged spears with Ash shafts will be available to throw at unsuspecting bales of Hay.
Fri – Sun 09:30 – 18:00 The Games Arena

Spoon Carving with 2 Hungry Bakers Adamina Turek and Adrian Austin are the founders of 2 Hungry Bakers, a food inspired ceramics and woodcraft design studio. Learn how to carve from seasoned Ash, Apple and Cherry - transform into a spoon to take home! All tools and materials supplied.
Sat 14:00 – 17:00, Sun 11:00 – 14:00 Hole & Corner

Stand-Up Comedy Workshop Explore some of the tricks of the trade. Learn how to find comic material and get some top tips on developing a unique comic voice. You will write a little, speak a lot a and hopefully laugh out loud. It’s a confidence boost that will push you to think outside the box.
Fri 13:45 Workshop Barn 2

Stargazing Explore the night skies and learn about our intergalactic neighbours as Dartmoor Skies pitch their telescopes beside the river. Whether you’ve had a passion all your life or are exploring the cosmos for the very first time, this is a welcoming and relaxed workshop for everyone. (Weather dependent.)
Fri – Sun 21:00 – 22:30 Great Outdoors, meet at The Pampas Grass

SUP Yoga gives you no choice but to “be here now”: practising yoga on your floating yoga mat is as present as you can be. Learn to pay attention to every breath and body movement as the water and winds shift around you.
Fri 11:30, 12:50, Sat 12:45, 14:00, Sun 14:00, 15:20 Great Outdoors meet at The Boathouse

Sustainable Craftwear Francli Craftwear is a small, British studio that makes craft and outdoor goods from repurposed waste fabrics. Francli co-founder Ali Goodman will be making up-cycled aprons, lanyards and phone case holders, and sharing her knowledge of traditional leatherwork techniques.
Fri 9:30, 14:00 Sat 10:30, Sun 10:00 Hole & Corner

The Survival Handbag Learn how to “survive and thrive” with a fully equipped handbag. The key principles of a Survival PLAN can be achieved by improvising with the resources available. It’s a fun, hands-on workshop for the whole family.
Fri – Sun 9:30, 14:00 Survival Wisdom Camp

Tote Backpack Making Merchant & Mills create dressmaking patterns and supply curated fabrics and sewing tools. Work alongside their expert makers with sewing machines and premium materials and make ‘The Costmonger’, an essential market tote bag designed as a backpack.
Fri 10:45, Sat 11:00, 15:00, Sun 15:00 Hole & Corner

Tree-Climbing with Wilderness Play Matt and Joel have a wealth of experience in forestry and arboriculture, environmental management, first aid and high rope access. They will be holding drop-in Tree Climbing sessions throughout the weekend – come and have a go!
Fri – Sun 10:00 – 16:00 Wildlings Wood

Up-cycled Jewellery Make something fabulous from a sparkly stash of beads. Lynne teaches aspects of design, colour, shape and texture, using stringing and crimping techniques (with jewellery findings and wire). It is suitable for all abilities and all materials are provided.
Thurs 14:30 Workshop Barn 2
Sat 10:30 Workshop Barn 1

Viking Games such as Kubb (which originally used the heads of vanquished enemies) blind-folded pillow fighting and fixed pole jousting will be just a few games to try out your warrior skills! This workshop is drop in – no need to book in advance.
Fri – Sun 09:30 – 18:00 The Games Arena

Vintage Swimming Hat Making Whether you’re planning to swim a mile down the Tiddy or bask on its banks, why not do it in style? Costume and theatre designer Fiona Chivers has 20 years experience of dressing up making magic happen. Join her at this fun workshop and spawn the swimwear headgear of your dreams.
Fri 12:45, 14:00 Workshop Barn 1

Wild Beer Tasting Stuart Woodman returns with more wild booze for festival-goers to sample and enjoy, this year focusing on the delights of beer. Stuart will be guiding workshop attendees through a tutored tasting of a selection of his highly acclaimed seasonal wild beers.
Thurs 17:30, Fri & Sat 18:15 Workshop Barn 1

Wild Cocktail Making Take a dash of nature, a splash of booze and a good glug of experimentation, shake them all together and you’ve got a wild cocktail masterclass! Forager, brewer and mixologist Stuart Woodman will talk you through some classic cocktails with a hedgerow twist. Over 18s only.
Thurs 18:45, Fri, Sat 19:30 Workshop Barn 1

Wild Singing Sing among the inspiring and ever-changing acoustics of nature. Join Janice M. to learn simple harmonies of beautiful songs for a memorable, shared experience. Wild Singing is all about harmonising with the great outdoors. Singers of all abilities, including beginners, are welcome.
Fri & Sat 10:30, 14:00 Workshop Barn

Wild Swimming Striding into the estuary for a swim is one of the highlights of the festival. Join Katie Maggs, year-round all-weather swimmer, for a dip. Katie is an Ambassador for the Outdoor Swimming Society and advocate of the water’s physical and mental health benefits.
Fri 12:15, Sat 13:20, Sun 14:45 Great Outdoors, meet at the Boathouse

Woodwork with Harry Samuel a full-time traditional woodworker, who manages woodland to supply the raw materials for his work. Learn carving and shaping with a pre-axed blank, which will culminate in everyone taking away a spoon to enjoy for life.
Fri 14:00, Sat 10:30 Hole & Corner

Yarnbombing Every autumn the little town of Liskeard is yarnbombed with colourful knitting and crochet. Join 3 Bags Full, the mysterious group behind this, to transform the area outside the orangery over the weekend. Festival-goers of all ages are very welcome to join in with the woolly creativity, including making pom poms and dreamcatchers. Drop-in all Weekend Orangery Entrance